10. (a) Deductions for absence from duty can be made only of account of the absence of the employed person at times when he should be working and such deductions must not exceed an amount which is in the same proportion to his wages for the wage period, as the time he was absent in that period is to the total time he should have been at work.

(b) If ten or more employed persons, acting in concert, absent themselves without reasonable cause and without due notice, the deduction for absence can include wages for eight days in lieu of notice, but (1) No deduction for breaking a contract can be made from a person under 15 or a woman; (2) There must be a provision in writing which forms part of the contract of employment requiring that a specific period of notice of intention to cease work not exceeding 15 days or the period of notice which the employer has to give to discharge a worker, must be given to the employer and that wages may be deducted in lieu of such notice; (3) The above provision must be displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory; (4) No deduction of this nature can be made until a notice that this deduction is to be made has been posted at or near the main entrance of the factory; (5) No deduction must exceed the wages of the employed person for the period by which the notice he gives of leaving employment is less than the notice he should have given under his contract.

11. Deductions can be made for damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to an employed person or for loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is due to his neglect or default.

Such deductions cannot exceed the amount of the damage or loss caused and can be made only after giving the employed persons an opportunity for explanation.

12. Deductions can be made, equivalent to the value thereof, for house accommodation supplied by the employer or by Government or any housing board set up under any law for the time being in force (whether the Government or the board is the employer or not) or any other authority engaged in the business of subsidising house accommodation which may be specified in this behalf by the Central Government, amenities and services (other than tools and raw materials) supplied by the employer: provided these are accepted by the employed person as a part of the terms of his employment and have in the case of amenities and services been authorised by order of the Central Government.

13. (a) Deductions can be made for the recovery of advance or for adjustment of over-payment of wages.

(b)Advances made before the employment began can only be recovered from the first payment of wages for a complete wage period but no recovery can be made of advances given for travelling expenses before payment began.(c)Advances of unearned wages can be made at the paymaster's discretion during employment.

14. Deductions can be made for subscription to and for repayment of advances from any recognised provident fund.

15. Deductions can be made for payments to co-operative societies approved by the Central Government or to the postal insurance, subject to any conditions imposed by the Central Government.

Deductions can also be made with the written authorisation of the person employed for payment of any premium on his life insurance policy to the Life Insurance Corporation of India or for the purchase of securities of the Government of India or of any State Government or for being deposited in any Post Office Savings Bank in furtherance of any savings scheme of any such Government.

-A. Any loss of wages resulting from withholding of increment or promotion, reduction to a lower post or time scale or to a lower stage in a time scale or suspension does not constitute deduction from wages within the meaning of the Act. For this purpose the rules framed by an employer in relation to his employees in Railways for the purpose of any of the aforesaid penalties shall provide that:(i)any such penalty as aforesaid, except the penalty of suspension, shall not be imposed unless the person concerned (a) has been informed of the charges in respect of which it is proposed to impose the penalty; (b) has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why the proposed penalty should not be imposed. (ii) the person concerned is given a right of appeal against any order imposing the penalty. Inspections

16. An Inspector can enter on any premises and can exercise the powers of inspection (including examination of documents and taking of evidence) as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

Complaints of Deductions or Delays

(1) Where irregular deductions are made from wages, or delays in payment take place, an employed person can make an application in the prescribed form within 6 months to the Authority appointed by the State Government for the purpose. An application delayed beyond this period may be rejected unless sufficient cause for delay is shown. (2) Any legal practitioner, official of a registered trade union, Inspector under the Act or other person acting with the permission of the authority can make the complaint on behalf of an employed person. (3) A single application may be presented by, or on behalf of any number of persons belonging to the same factory, the payment of whose wages has been delayed.
