11. Restrictions may be imposed by Central Government

.[(1)] [[Rule 11 renumbered as sub-rule (1) thereof and sub-rule (2) inserted by G.S.R.1259, dated 27.11.1980.]] Any licence having effect outside the State in which it is granted, shall be subject to any restrictions which may be imposed by a general or special order of the Central Government.(2)[Save where he is specially authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate concerned, the licensee shall not carry any arms covered by the licence within the campus or precincts of any educational institution.] [[Rule 11 renumbered as sub-rule (1) thereof and sub-rule (2) inserted by G.S.R. 1259, dated 27.11.1980.]][- -] [Rule 12 omitted by G.S.R.1418, dated 15.9.1965.]

13. Of retainers

(1)When the owner of any arms or ammunition licensed in Form III applies for permitting his agent, relative or employee to possess or carry any of the arms or ammunition covered by the licence for sport, protection or display, on his behalf, whether in attendance on him or not, and in circumstances different from those mentioned in the proviso to section 3, such agent, relative or employee may, if the licensing authority considers it fit, be shown as a retainer by entering his name and other particulars in column 6 of the owners licence in Form III.(2)A licence in Form III granted to a company for the protection of its premises or property shall be in the name of a member, agent or other representative of the company, who shall be responsible for the custody of the weapon. The name of a servant or any other employee entrusted with the weapon for guarding the premises or property of the company shall be entered as a retainer in the appropriate column of the licence. The licensing authority shall issue to the licensee a permit in Form III-B for each of such retainers shown in the licence. The permit shall remain in the personal custody of the representative of the company and shall be made over to the retainers when they are entrusted with the weapon covered by the licence:[Provided that the licensing authority shall obtain a report from the Police about the antecedents of the retainer and take into consideration such report before admitting him as a retainer.] Inserted by G.S.R.703, dated 15.7.1981.A licence in Form III-A for possession and carrying of arms or ammunition may be granted to a person nominated to be his retainer by a person exempted from licensing requirements:Provided that the retainer shall have no right, independent of the person so exempted, to use the arms or ammunition covered by the licence, and the licence shall cease to be in force on the day on which the person so exempted has ceased to be an exemptee, or the retainer has ceased to be in the service of the exemptee:[Provided further that the licensing authority shall obtain a report from the Police about the antecedents of the retainer and take into consideration such report before admitting him as a retainer.] [Inserted by G.S.R.703, dated 15.7.1981.]

14. Licences for protection of crops and cattle

(1) Where a licence is granted in Form V, any member of the family of the licensee or a servant employed by the licensee to watch the crops or cattle and residing with him, may, in the discretion of the licensing authority, be allowed to carry any of the arms or ammunition covered by the licence to protect crops or cattle against wild animals in the area specified in the licence by entering his name and particulars in column 2 thereof. (2) Where, after the end of any harvest season, the State Government considers it expedient that for the protection of wildlife in any area, any arms or ammunition licensed in Form V should be deposited in a police station or with a licensed dealer, it may, by order, require any licensee to deposit such arms or ammunition for such period as the arms or ammunition are not required for the protection of crops or cattle and as may be specified therein, and thereupon the licensee shall be bound to comply with such order.

15. Licence for target practice

.Where a licence in Form VI has been granted in the name of any military mess, club or association, it shall be lawful for any member of such mess, club or association to use the firearms or ammunition covered by such licence for the purposes of the mess, club or association in accordance with the conditions of the licence.

16. Age-limit for training and target practice

.Any person below the age of sixteen years but not below the age of twelve years may be allowed to use a firearm for the purpose of training in the use of such firearm in the immediate presence, or under the direct supervision and guidance, of an adult instructor or the licensee: Provided that no person below the age of sixteen years shall be allowed to carry any firearm requiring a licence, in public place, except in the immediate presence and supervision of the person who is lawfully entitled to carry such firearm. Explanation. For the purpose of this rule, an adult means a person who has completed the age of twenty-one years.

17. Travellers (temporary) licence

(1) Subject to the provisions of rule 8, a licence in Form VIII may be granted to any bona fide traveller, proceeding from the place of his arrival in India to his place of destination in India, for the possession and carrying of arms or ammunition for the duration of the journey, by the licensing authority at the place of arrival. (2) A copy of every such licence shall be forthwith sent to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the place of destination of the licensee; such authority shall satisfy himself, when necessary, that the licensee has complied with condition 7 entered on the Form of the licence.

18. Application of section 4 of the Act

.In any area specified in the notification issued by the Central Government under section 4, licences for acquisition, possession or carrying in that area of arms of such class or description as may be specified in that notification may also be granted or renewed as provided in Schedule II, subject to such conditions as are specified in that Schedule and in the licence.

19. Arms other than firearms

.Unless the Central or State Government by notification in the Official Gazette so directs, no licence shall be required for the manufacture, sale, possession for sale, or test, of arms of category V except in the areas notified under section 4.

20. Manufacture, conversion, shortening, repair, test, sale, etc., of arms or ammunition

(1)The licensing authority while granting a licence in Form IX shall show clearly in the licence form(i)the categories and description of the arms or ammunition covered by the licence;(ii)the transactions permitted in respect of the different categories of arms or ammunition, and omit any transactions or categories of arms or ammunition, not covered by the licence.(2)A copy of every licence granted in Form IX by an authority other than the District Magistrate of the place of business, factory or shop of the licensee shall forthwith be sent to that District Magistrate.

21. Conversion, repair, test, sale, etc

(1)Where a licence is granted in Form IX or Form XI for conversion or repair, but not manufacture, of any category of firearms or ammunition, it entitles the licensee to fabricate components or parts, for the purpose of conversion or repair of such firearms or ammunition but not to manufacture such components or parts to be utilised for assembling into complete firearms or ammunition of any category which he is not allowed to manufacture.(2)(a)A licence in Form XI shall not entitle the dealer to shorten a firearm or to convert an imitation firearm, into a firearm, unless he has a licence in Form IX showing specifically that he is permitted to shorten a firearm or convert an imitation firearm into a firearm.(b)Under no circumstances shall a dealer shorten the barrel of a rifle or smooth-bore gun so that the resultant length becomes less than 20 inches.(c)The details of the cases in which barrels are shortened and imitation firearms are converted into firearms shall be reported every month to the District Magistrate, in such form, if any, as may be required.(3)A dealer having a licence in Form XI, Form XII or Form XIII to [repair to test] [Substituted by G.S.R. 1689, dated 9.9.1970.] or to sell firearms or ammunition shall not take the firearms or ammunition for testing to a testing range or other place, unless specifically permitted to do so by his licence, and he shall carry out tests only in such manner and subject to such conditions as are laid down therein.(4)[Where a licence is granted in Form IX or Form XI for conversion of ammunition, it shall not entitle the licensee to convert blank cartridges or any ammunitions having no projectile into single/multiple projectile ammunition or to load or re-load any ammunition.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 703, dated

22. Proof-testing of firearms

(1) Proof-testing of firearms manufactured by a licensed dealer shall be carried out only in accordance with the regulations which may be framed by the Central Government or framed by such authorities as the Central Government may specify in this behalf and approved by that Government. (2) No dealer shall sell a firearm which has not been duly proof-tested.

23. Licensing authorities to furnish information to the District Magistrate

A copy of every licence granted in any Form by any authority other than a District Magistrate shall be sent forthwith to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area in which the place of business or residence of the licensee is situated.

24. Sale or keeping for sale certain arms and ammunition

(1) The State Government or, in the States of [Tamil Nadu] [[Substituted by G.S.R. 733, dated 1.7.1974.]], Andhra Pradesh or Kerala, the Board of Revenue, may, by licence granted by it in Form XI or Form XII, authorise selected dealers to sell or keep for sale a specified amount of ammunition of category I(c). (2) A dealer possessing a licence in Form IX, Form XI, or Form XII shall not sell or transfer any arms or ammunition of category I(b) or I(c) to any person, unless the acquisition or possession of such arms or ammunition is expressly permitted in his licence or in his certificate of exemption.

25. Identification marks on firearms

(1) A manufacturer of firearms shall get every firearm manufactured by him stamped so as to show distinctly (a) the maker's name and registered trade mark, if any; (b) the serial number of the weapon as entered in his register and the year of stamping; and (c) proof-mark; as shown in the following Table: (2) When an imported firearm kept for sale by a dealer does not bear the manufacturer's name, such distinguishing mark of the importer as allotted by the State Government shall be engraved on the barrel (adjacent to the number, if any, existing thereon) and on other parts as shown in column (2) of the Table under sub-rule (1); if a barrel bears more than one number, the distinguishing mark shall be affixed to the number appearing on the original invoice. When the manufacturer's number appears only on the trigger guard or other replaceable part, that number shall be engraved on the part shown in column (3) of the Table. (3) A person, who has in his possession any firearm which does not bear distinctly a manufacturer's name, number or other identification mark as mentioned in sub-rule (1), shall get the identification mark stamped on the firearm consisting of (a) such distinct letters as may be prescribed for the purpose by the State Government; (b) serial number of the possession licence in the Arms Register of the licensing authority concerned or, in respect of the firearms in possession of a person exempt from the obligation to take out licence for their possession, the letters Ex; and (c) the year of stamping, in that order and in the following manner:

1. Rifles On the barrel and breech.

2. Guns and Pistols On the barrel.

3. Revolvers On the breech and cylinder.

26. Records of transactions in arms and ammunition

(1)Every dealer shall maintain such registers as may be prescribed by the Central Government to show receipts, disposals, balance of stocks in hand and daily sales of arms or ammunition of different categories and provide such other information as may be required.(2)Every entry of transactions in such registers shall be made before the close of business hours on the same day and in the case of a sale or transfer the dealer shall, at the time of the transaction, require the purchaser or transferee, if not known to him, to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the registers.

27. Inspection of premises, stock and record

.Every Magistrate and police-officer not below the rank of Inspector, or if the Central Government so directs, of Sub-Inspector, [acting within the local limits of his authority, or any officer of the Central Government specially empowered in this behalf may] Substituted by G.S.R. 3, dated 28.12.1967.enter and inspect the premises in which arms or ammunition are manufactured or in which arms or ammunition are kept by a manufacturer or in such arms or ammunition; and(b)examine the stock and accounts of receipts and disposals of arms and ammunition or any other register or document.

28. Restrictions upon import or export for re-import of arms or ammunition

.A licence shall not be granted for the import or export for re-import of any arms or ammunition through the medium of post office.

29. Import by sea or air

.Arms or ammunition shall be deemed to have been brought into India by a person when such arms or ammunition are imported through an agent and are either(i)consigned to such person direct, or(ii)consigned to the said agent, if the agent possesses, a certificate from the said person that the arms or ammunition are bona fide his property and the agent only clears the arms or ammunition from the customs house and forwards the same.

30. Vessels entering the territorial waters of India

.Arms or ammunition carried by a vessel entering the territorial waters of India or leaving such waters, shall be deemed to be imported or exported as the case may be, irrespective of whether the vessel carrying the arms or ammunition does not berth.

31. Import by land or river of arms and ammunition

(1)Where a licence is granted in Form XVI and the articles are consigned to an area not on the frontier of India, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the authority granting it to the Government of the State concerned or the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area in which they cross such frontier; and the State Government/District Magistrate may in its/his discretion require the licensee to produce the arms or ammunition for its/his inspection before allowing the same to be taken out.(2)Where arms or ammunition are imported by rail, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the authority granting it to the railway authorities at the place to which such arms or ammunition are consigned.

32. Bringing of arms or ammunition into India by bona fide tourists.[(1) A licence, valid for a period of six months from the date of endorsement referred to in sub-rule (1-A), may be granted in Form III to bona fide tourists referred to in clause (b) of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 10, so far as practicable, six months prior to the expected date of arrival of the tourist in India:Provided that the validity of the licence so granted shall commence only from the date of endorsement of the said licence and that the arms and ammunition covered by the licence shall not be used till the date of endorsement of the licence.(1-A) When a licence is granted in Form III to a bona fide tourist, under sub-rule (1), the licence, together with the passport/visa of the tourist, shall be presented to the licensing authority as soon as may be after the disembarkment of the tourist and the latter shall(a)after obtaining the undertaking referred to in sub-rule (2), endorse the licence making it valid for a period of six months from the date of the endorsement; and(b)make an entry in the passport/visa giving full particulars of all the arms and ammunition for which the licence has been granted].(2)The licensing authority shall obtain an undertaking in writing from the licensee that he shall not sell or transfer the arms or ammunition to anyone in India without the prior permission of the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the place where such sale or transfer is to be made, and where the arms or ammunition are sold or transferred he shall inform the customs authority and pay the duty, if any.(3)The passport checking authority or any other officer empowered by the District Magistrate in this behalf at the port or other place of departure from India shall verify that the arms entered in the passport/visa are being taken out of India by the licensee and recover the licence and forward the same to the authority who issued it with the remarks that the arms have been duly re-exported or lawfully sold or transferred in India, as the case may be.

33. Of exports

(1)The authority granting a licence in Form XVII for export by sea or air of arms or ammunition from customs ports to ports in foreign territory or Commonwealth shall send a copy of such licence to the agent or master of the vessel or to the air carrier by which the arms or ammunition covered by the licence are intended to be taken out of India.(2)The weapons of the following descriptions shall not be allowed to be exported, namely:(i)weapons falling within the definition of antiquity under the [Antiquities (Export Control) Act, 1947 (31 of 1947)] [Now see the Antiquities and Treasures Act, 1972 (52 of 1972).];(ii)weapons of current and popular bores for which ammunition is available in the country; and(iii)automatic weapons and weapons which are in use by the police or the armed forces of the Union.(3)Every application for the grant of a licence in Form XVII or Form XVIII for export of firearms shall be accompanied by a certificate from the Director-General of Archaeology of the Central Government to the effect that the arms intended to be exported do not fall within the definition of antiquity under the [Antiquities (Export Control) Act, 1947 (31 of 1947)] [[Now see the Antiquities and Treasures Act, 1972 (52 of 1972.)]. If the application is made to the Central Government, it shall be accompanied by a further certificate from the licensing authority of the place from where the weapons are intended to be exported certifying that the weapons do not belong to any of the descriptions mentioned in sub-rule (2).

34. Export by land or river of arms and ammunition

.When a licence for export of arms or ammunition by land or river is granted in Form XVIII a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the licensing authority(a)where the arms or ammunition are exported by rail, to the District Magistrate of the place from which the consignment is to be despatched or, in the State of Jammu and Kashmir, to the State Government, and such authority shall forthwith send a copy to the railway authorities at the station from which the consignment is to be despatched;(b)where the arms or ammunition are exported by road or river, to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area out of which they are to cross the frontier of India; and such Magistrate may, in his discretion, require the licensee to produce the arms or ammunition for his inspection before allowing them to leave the area.

35. Export and re-import of arms and ammunition by sea or air

(1)A licence in Form XIX may be granted for export of arms or ammunition by sea or air from one place in India and re-import into another place in India(a)by the Central Government or any other officer specially empowered by it, if(i)the arms or ammunition are taken by sea or by an International Air Service or across intervening territory not forming part of India, or(ii)the arms or ammunition form part of the estate of a deceased or insane person who was or is subject to the Indian Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957), or whose estate is dealt with under the Army and Air Force (Disposal of Private Property) Act, 1950 (40 of 1950), where such arms or ammunition are to be sent to the wife, widow, legal representative or next-of-kin of such deceased or insane person; or(b)by the licensing authority(i)for import, at the place of destination, or(ii)for export, at the place of despatch subject to the previous consent of the licensing authority at the place of destination as required under rule 50if the arms or ammunition are carried by sea or by an internal air service.Explanation. For the purpose of this rule, India includes any of ex-French Settlements in India.(2)A copy of every licence granted under sub-rule (1) shall forthwith be sent by the authority granting it to(a)the licensing authority/authorities of the place of despatch/destination of the articles as the case may be, or if the place of despatch/destination is in any of the ex-French Settlements in India, to the Secretary, General Administration Department, Government of Pondicherry; and(b)where the place of despatch/destination of the articles is other than a port(i)to the licensing authority at the port of export/re-import; and(ii)if the route includes transport by rail, to the railway authorities at the station from which the consignment is to be despatched.

36. Arms or ammunition to be delivered to

Commissioner of Customs in certain cases. Where a vessel or aircraft bound for a port other than a port in India calls at any port in India in the course of its voyage, and remains there for a period exceeding forty-eight hours, any arms or ammunition in the possession of any passenger not exempted from liability to take out a licence in respect of such possession shall be delivered by him to the Commissioner of Customs to be detained until the departure by sea or air, as the case may be, of such passenger, and it shall not be necessary for such passenger to take out any licence in respect of the arms or ammunition so delivered and detained.

37. Prohibition of transport of arms and ammunition

(1) Save as herein otherwise provided, no person shall transport over India or any part thereof any firearms or ammunition or any arms of category V, except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence granted under these rules. (2) Nothing in sub-rule (1) or in section 12 shall be deemed to apply to arms or ammunition (a) transported personally or as personal luggage, in reasonable quantities for his own use, by a person lawfully entitled to possess or carry such arms or ammunition; (b) transported by a person licensed to manufacture such articles, for proof testing, in a case or package legibly addressed to a Government establishment or an establishment approved in this behalf by the Central Government, or re-transported by such establishment to such person; (c) of category V, transported through an area where the Central Government has, by notification in the Official Gazette, applied section 4, or from such area to an area where section 4 does not apply, provided that the weapons are properly packed and labelled, showing clearly the description of the articles and the name and address of the consignee; (d) transported by a licensed dealer for export or after import, in accordance with a licence for their export or import, (i) from the place of despatch to the port or other place of export, or (ii) from the port or other place of import to the place of destination, or (iii) by transshipment in the port of import for re-export by sea or air; (e) transported (i) by a person lawfully entitled to possess such articles, in reasonable quantities for his own use from the premises of a licensed dealer, or for purposes of examination or repair or test to or from any such premises, or to the address of any other person lawfully entitled to possess such articles; or (ii) by a licensed dealer in a case or package legibly addressed to a person lawfully entitled to possess such articles, in compliance with an order given by such person for the supply of such articles, in reasonable quantities, for his own use or carrying out necessary repairs thereto; (f) being chlorates, transported for bona fide industrial, agricultural or medical purposes: Provided that (i) transport of arms or ammunition under clause (d), clause (e) or clause (f) shall be subject to obtaining a certificate of no objection from the licensing authority at the destination of the articles as provided for in rule 50; (ii) transport of arms or ammunition personally for any of the purposes stated in sub-clause (i) of clause (e) without using them through any area outside the area of validity of his possession licence, shall be subject to his obtaining a permit from the licensing authority at the starting place of transport; and (iii) prior intimation of the transport of arms of category V under clause (c) or of chlorates under clause (f) shall be given to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station or a Magistrate having jurisdiction over the place of despatch.(3)The officer or Magistrate receiving prior intimation under clause (iii) of the proviso to sub-rule (2) shall immediately inform the District Magistrate and, if the articles are transported by rail, the superintendent of railway police having jurisdiction(i)over the place of destination in the case of transport of chlorates, and(ii)over the place of entry into the area, where section 4 applies, in the case of transport of arms of category V.Explanation. For the purposes of this rule, transport includes movement of arms or ammunition across any part of the country, but does not include movement of arms or ammunition by a licensed dealer from a warehouse, godown or any other similar place to his factory, shop or other places of business within the same village, town or city.

38. Transport of arms or ammunition

(1)A copy of licence granted in Form XX for transport of arms or ammunition beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the authority granting it shall forthwith be sent to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area where the place to which the articles are consigned is situated, or if such place is in the State of Jammu and Kashmir, to the Government of the State.(2)A copy of every such licence granted by a District Magistrate for transport within the limits of his jurisdiction shall forthwith be sent to the Subordinate Magistrate (if any) having jurisdiction over the place to which the arms or ammunition are consigned.(3)Where arms or ammunition are transported by rail, a copy of such licence or a copy of the no objection certificate referred to in rule 50 shall be attached to the way-bill or invoice, as the case may be, and telegraphic advice of every such consignment shall be sent by the railway authorities from the forwarding to the receiving station.(4)A licence of the transport of arms or ammunition shall not, save for special reasons to be recorded by the authority granting it, be granted for a period longer than twice the time likely to be occupied in the journey to the place of destination by the route indicated in the licence:Provided that a licence for a longer period, not exceeding a quarter of a year at one time, may be granted in connection with industrial purposes for transporting ingredients of ammunition in instalments from the godown to the factory of the licensee situated within the same district but not in the same locality. A licensee transporting any ingredients of ammunition under such licence shall give prior intimation to the nearest Magistrate/officer in charge of the police station; and he shall make necessary entries promptly in the stock registers maintained for the purpose at both the godown and the factory.

39. Licence for import, transport and re-export of arms and ammunition

.Where under the authority of a licence for import, transport and re-export of arms or ammunition granted in Form XIX, the arms or ammunition are to be(a)transportedacross Indian territory entirely by rail, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the authority granting it, to the licensing authority and to the railway authority at the places from which the consignment is to be despatched;(b)transported across Indian territory and re-exported by land or river, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the authority granting it to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area out of which the consignment is to cross the frontier of India.

40. Scrutiny by authorities of consignments containing arms and ammunition

(1)(a)(i)Where a package or case containing arms or ammunition is brought for export and transport, to a railway authority or shipping agent or a master of vessel or air carrier, the latter shall, before receiving the articles for despatch or despatching them, verify that they are accompanied by the original licence in the case of export or an attested copy of the licence in the case of transport or of export for re-import.(ii)Where a consignment is received after import, or transport, by an authority at a port checking import or by a railway authority, such authority shall require the production of the original licence before delivering the consignment.(b)Where arms or ammunition consigned to an area not on the frontier of India are imported, or where a consignment of arms or ammunition is exported, by land or river, the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area in India into or out of which it crosses the frontier of India or an officer appointed by him in this behalf shall require the licensee to produce original licence and may, in his discretion, require the licensee to produce the arms or ammunition for his inspection before allowing the articles to leave the area.(c)The aforesaid authority shall satisfy himself(i)that the licence accompanying the consignment or produce by the licensee is identical in substance with the copy sent to him; and(ii)that the arms or ammunition correspond with the description given in such licence.(2)Where in any case referred to in sub-rule (1)(a)the original licence is not produced by the consignee or the original or attested copy of the licence does not accompany the case or package, as the case may be,or(b)the licence is not identical in substance with the copy sent to the authority, or(c)the arms or ammunition do not correspond with the description given in such licence, the authority shall not receive the articles or despatch or allow the articles to proceed further or deliver the consignment, as the case may be, and shall, in case he is not a Magistrate, forthwith inform the nearest Magistrate.

41. Production and delivery of licence for import/export/transport

(1)The consignee of arms or ammunition imported/transported under a licence or his agent in the case of arms or ammunition exported under a licence shall(a)produce the licence, where the consignment in the course of import crosses the frontiers of India by land or river, within six days of such crossing, before the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area into which the consignment so crosses or before such other officer as the District Magistrate may appointment in that behalf;(b)deliver the licence within six days of the arrival of the consignment(i)at the destination, in case of such consignment has been imported or transported to a place in India, or(ii)in the area out of which such consignment, being exported/transported across Indian territory for re-export, is to cross the frontier of India and before it so crosses, to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area in which the destination or place of crossing as the case may be, is situated, or such other officer as the District Magistrate/State Government may appoint in that behalf.(2)Every officer, to whom a licence is produced or delivered under sub-rule (1), shall satisfy himself that(a)the arms or ammunition correspond with the description given in the licence, and(b)any deficiency is properly accounted for.(3)If the officer to whom a licence is delivered under sub-rule (1) is an officer other than the District Magistrate, the licence shall be forwarded by such other officer to the District Magistrate.

42. Import, transport and export of arms and ammunition for the Government of Nepal or the King of Nepal

(1)Where arms or ammunition are imported into India for despatch to the Government of Nepal or His Majesty the King of Nepal, the customs authorities at the port of disembarkation, of the licensing authority in other places, shall check the consignment against the list of arms or ammunition received from the Central Government; the packages shall be sealed thereafter in the presence of a Customs Examiner or any other authority appointed for the purpose by the Central Government.(2)(a)Where arms or ammunition imported into, or acquired in India are to be despatched to Nepal for the Government of Nepal, or His Majesty the King of Nepal, they shall be accompanied by a certificate from the Collector of Customs or the licensing authority of the area concerned to that effect; the certificate shall also contain a description of the marks on each package or case sufficient to enable it to be readily identified and a general statement of the contents of such package or case;(b)On receipt of requisition from the clearing agents or the firm concerned, as the case may be, the District Magistrate shall arrange for necessary escort up to the railway station;(c)The railway authorities shall not receive for despatch any package or case containing arms or ammunition unless accompanied by a certificate as required under clause (a).(3)Where in any case(i)the list referred to in sub-rule (1) is not received from the Central Government, or(ii)the arms or ammunition imported into, or intended to be despatched from India do not correspond with the description given in such list, the authorities concerned shall not allow the consignment to be despatched to Nepal and shall forthwith inform the Central Government.

43. Transport of arms from any place in Nepal to any other place in Nepal through Indian territory

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 8 and 28, the Ambassador of India in Nepal, on application made by or on behalf of His Majesty the King of Nepal, or the Government of Nepal and subject to confirmation by the Central Government, may grant a licence in Form XXI for the import into, possession in, transport across, or export out of, India from any place in the territory of Nepal to any other place in that territory across the frontiers of India, of arms or ammunition of categories I and II or any other category, by His Majesty the King of Nepal, personal accompanying him, his brothers, the Prime Minister of Nepal and Nepal Governments Troops or Police, as the case may be.(2)Where under the authority of a licence granted under sub-rule (1), arms or ammunition are to pass across Indian territory(a)if entirely by rail, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent by the Ambassador to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the areas through which the arms or ammunition shall pass across the frontiers of India and also to the railway authorities of the place in the Indian territory through which the consignment shall pass;(b)if by road or river, a copy of the licence shall forthwith be sent to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the areas through which the arms or ammunition shall pass to Nepal across the frontiers of India.(3)The Central Government, or the Ambassador with the approval of the Central Government, may make any order regulating the safe transit to Nepal across the frontiers of India of the arms or ammunition mentioned in this rule.

44. Transit licences for bona fide travellers

(1)Where a licence is granted in Form XXII, the licensing authority shall endorse the passport/visa of the tourist to that effect.(2)A copy of every licence granted in Form XXII shall forthwith be sent to such officer of the Government of the State in which the place of his departure from India is situated as may be specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government or the Administrator or Lieutenant-Governor or Chief Commissioner of a Union territory, as the case may be.(3)(a)The licensee shall not, while in India, sell or transfer any arms or ammunition covered by his licence without prior permission of the licensing authority of the place where such sale or transfer is to be effected. He shall produce the arms or ammunition or the permission of the licensing authority, as the case may be, at the time of leaving India and return his licence to the passport checking authority, or other authority empowered by the District Magistrate in this behalf, at the port or other place of departure from India;(b)The passport checking authority or other authority to whom the licence is returned by the licensee, shall forward the same to the authority who issued it, with the remarks that the arms or ammunition have been duly exported, or sold or transferred with the permission of the authority concerned as required under clause (a).

45. Licence to keep in custody arms and ammunition

.The licensee in Form XIV shall not accept for custody arms or ammunition without satisfying himself that there is no mala fide intention on the part of the depositor or any person on whose behalf the deposit is being made. The dealer shall either inform the nearest police station and the District Magistrate personally, or despatch information to the officer in charge of the police station and the District Magistrate by registered post on the day of deposit or return or disposal, as the case may be, of such arms or ammunition.

46. Deposit of arms and ammunition under section 21

(1)When a licensing authority decides to suspend or revoke a licence or to refuse to renew it, he shall, while communicating his decision in writing to the licensee, inform him that(a)under section 21(1) he is required to deposit within such time as may be specified in the order suspending, revoking or refusing to renew the licence, the arms or ammunition covered by the licence, either with the officer in charge of the nearest police-station or with a dealer holding a licence in Form XIV, or, in case he is a member of the armed forces of the Union, in the unit armoury;(b)subject to the proviso to section 21(2), during the period prescribed under sub-rule (4), he or, in the case of his death, his legal representative is entitled to sell or otherwise dispose of the arms or ammunition to any person lawfully entitled to possess the same and to receive the sale proceeds, if any; and(c)if the arms or ammunition have not been disposed of or their possession by the licensee or his legal representative, as the case may be, has not become lawful within the prescribed period, they shall, subject to the proviso to section 21(3), be forfeited to Government by order of the District Magistrate.(2)Where any arms or ammunition is deposited by an owner under section 21(1), in a police station or unit armoury, or with a dealer holding a licence in Form XIV, the officer in charge of the police station or unit armoury or the licensed dealer, as the case may be, shall(a)attach to each article deposited, a card showing the following:Deposit under section 21(1)(i)Description (No. etc.)

(b) issue to the depositor a receipt containing the same particulars as in clause (a); and (c) on the same day send a copy of the receipt to the authority who granted the licence or renewed it last. (3) (a) In the event of failure to get the licence renewed, the arms or ammunition shall continue to be possessed by the dealer on the authority of his licence in Form XIV or by the officer in charge of the police station or unit armoury; but, if the licence is not renewed for a period of 3 years after its expiry, the dealer or the officer in charge of the police station or unit armoury shall bring this to the notice of the District Magistrate for such action as he may consider necessary. (b) the articles shall in no case be returned to the owner, unless the licence to possess them is renewed or a new licence is obtained. (4) [The depositor may be charged a fee for the custody of the articles deposited at the following rates:

1. For each fire arm Fifty rupees per year or portion thereof.

2. For every other weapon or package of ammunition Rs. 25 per year or portion thereof. Any extra charges for maintenance of the articles in good condition may be levied at such rates as may be fixed from time to time by the State Government.] [Substituted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19.12.1997 (w.e.f. 3.1.1998.)]

48. Records and returns of the articles deposited (1) The dealer, or the officer in charge of the police station or unit armoury shall maintain such registers as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) A copy of the entries in the registers relating to the quarters ending on the last day of March, June, September and December each year, certified as true copy under the signature of the dealer or officer in charge, of the police station or unit armoury, as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the District Magistrate as early as possible after the expiry of each quarter. (3) The licensed dealer or the officer in charge of the police station or unit armoury or of any other place specified under rule 46(3)(a)(ii) where the arms or ammunition are kept, shall submit to the District Magistrate by the 15th in December each year, a report showing the particulars of arms or ammunition in their custody which have, or will become liable to forfeiture by the end of that year.

49. Inspection

(1) Arms and ammunition deposited in a police station or with a dealer and those transferred to the district malkhana and the register maintained for the purpose shall be inspected periodically by the District Magistrate or other officer appointed by the State Government in this behalf in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed by the State Government. (2) The arms or ammunition deposited in a unit armoury and the register maintained for this purpose shall be inspected periodically by the officer commanding the unit or any other officer empowered by him in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Government of the State, where the unit is for the time being located.

50. Previous consent in certain cases

(1) A licence having effect beyond the local limits of the authority of the officer granting it shall not be granted for the transport or export or re-import of any arms or ammunition to a place, without ascertaining that there is no objection to the grant of such licence on the part of (i) the District Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area in which such place is situated; or (ii) the Government of the State of Jammu and Kashmir, if such place is in that State; or (iii) the Secretary, General Administration Department, Government of Pondicherry, if such place is in any of the ex-French Settlements in India. (2) For the purposes of sub-rule (1), either (i) a certificate of no objection may be obtained by the applicant for the licence; or (ii) an enquiry may be made by the authority to whom application for grant of such licence is made.

51. Application for licence

.Every application for the grant of a licence under these rules(a)shall be submitted in Form A;(b)may be presented by the applicant in person or sent through the medium of post office or otherwise, to the licensing authority, as far as possible having jurisdiction in respect of the place, where he ordinarily resides or has his occupation;(c)shall contain all such information as is necessary for the consideration of the application, and in particular(i)where the application is for a licence for the acquisition, possession and carrying of arms and ammunition for crop-protection, shall specify details of the land and cultivation requiring protection and area within which the arms or ammunition are required to be carried;(ii)where the application is for a licence for import by land or river or for export or for transport or for export and re-import, or for import, transport and re-export of arms or ammunition, shall specify the place or destination, the route, the time likely to be occupied in the journey and the quantity, description and price of each kind of arms or ammunition in respect of which the licence is required and the purpose for which they are intended;(d)where the grant of licence requires a certificate of no objection from some other authority as provided in rule 50, shall state whether such certificate has been obtained and, if so, shall be supported by evidence thereof;(e)[where an application is for the grant of licence in Form II, Form III, Form III-A, Form IV, Form V or Form VI from a person other than a bona fide tourist as defined in section 10(1)(b) of the Act, it shall be accompanied by two passport size copiesof the latest photograph of the applicant] [Inserted by G.S.R. 431, dated 11.2.1969.]:Provided that(i)an application by a member of the armed forces of the Union shall be made through his Commanding Officer to the licensing authority having jurisdiction in respect of the place to which he is for the time being posted; and(ii)the licensing authority may, in accordance with any instructions issued by the State Government in respect of all or any class of firearms, require the personal attendance of the applicant before granting or renewing the licence applied for.[51-A.[Inserted by G.S.R. 52(E), dated 24.1.1989.]The applicant shall not suppress any factual information or furnish any false or wrong information in the application form.] [Substituted by G.S.R.1019, dated 22.5.1968.]

52. Form of licence

.[(1) A licence in Form II, Form III, Form III-A, Form IV, Form V or Form VI, if granted for more than a year to a person other than bona fide tourist as defined in section 10(1)(b) of the Act, shall be in book-form and shall contain the latest photograph of the licensee.] [[Substituted by G.S.R. 431, dated11.2.1969.]](2)When a licence is granted in Form II, Form III, Form III-A, Form IV, Form V or Form VI for the possession of arms to be acquired by the licensee subsequent to the grant of the licence, the authority granting the licence shall at the time of granting the same, direct that within a period specified by him, in this behalf, which he may from time to time extend, the arms covered by the licence shall be acquired and that the licence or the arms or both shall be produced for his inspection and if within the period so specified or extended the licensee fails to acquire the arms and to produce the licence or the arms or both, as the case may be, the licence shall cease to be in force:Provided that, if during the period so specified or extended, the licensee wishes to acquire and possess any weapon or weapons of a different description and the licensing authority has no objection to allow the acquisition and possession of such weapon or weapons, he may amend the licence accordingly:[Provided further that(i)where the licensing authority is the State Government, the licensee residing at any place within the State in which the license was issued may produce the licence or the arms or both for inspection, before the State Government or any authority which the State Government may, by a general or special order, specify in this behalf;(ii)where the licensing authority is the State Government, the licensee may, if he changes his place of residence from one State to another State, produce the licence or arms or both for inspection before the Government of the second mentioned State or any authority which that Government may, by a general or special order, specify in this behalf;(iii)where the licensing authority is other than the State Government, the licensee may if he changes his place of residence, produce the licence or arms or both for inspection before the licensing authority of the place of his new residence to which the licensee may have shifted after the grant of licence, within the period so specified, or extended and the authority other than the licensing authority who inspected the arms as well as the licensee shall intimate the fact of such inspection to the authority who issued the licence.]

53. Variation of conditions of licences

(1)On application from a licence-holder, a licensing authority may extend the area of validity specified in his licence, if he is satisfied about the need of such extension, subject to the condition that the licensing authority has the power to grant a licence in relation to the area to which extension is sought.(2)On application from a company holding a licence in Form II or Form III, for a change in the name of the member, agent or other representative of the company in whose name the licence has been granted or of a retainer included in the licence the necessary amendment may be made in the licence by the licensing authority.

54. Renewal of licences

(1)Every licence may, at its expiration and subject to the same condition (if any) as to the grant thereof, be renewed by the authority mentioned in Schedule II as renewing authority:[Provided that the licence so renewed may be signed in the appropriate column of the licence by such officer as may be specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government under rule 4.] Added by G.S.R. 1011(A), Dated 7.8.1972.The authority issuing a licence shall ordinarily be responsible for watching all future renewals of the licence. Where a licence is renewed by an authority other than the authority who granted it, the former shall forthwith inform the latter of the fact of renewal and the period for which such renewal is valid. The applicant for the renewal of a licence under this rule shall always be required to state his permanent residence, and, if he notifies a change in his permanent residence to the district in which the renewal is sought, the licensing authority of such district shall hence-forward become responsible for watching all future renewals of his licence and shall inform the original issuing authority accordingly. The procedure shall be repeated on each subsequent occasion of renewal of the licence, the necessary intimation being sent by the renewing authority to the original issuing authority or to the authority who last renewed the licence on a permanent change of residence, as the case may be.(3)An application for renewal of a licence for arms or ammunition deposited under sub-rule (1) of rule 47 may be made by the depositor, or where it is not practicable to make the application direct, through the dealer or any other person authorised by him in this behalf while the arms or ammunition continue to be so deposited.(4)The licensing authority may consider an application for renewal of a licence, if the period between the date of its expiry and the date of application is not, in his opinion, unduly alongwith due regard to the circumstances of the case, and all renewal fee for the intervening period are paid; otherwise the application may be treated as one for grant of a fresh licence.(5)[The licensing authority and the renewing authority at the Centre or at the State level, while granting a licence or renewing a licence, as the case may be, shall enter the data in the record in an electronic format duly approved by the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be.(6)The licensing authority and the renewing authority shall also enter such data as are required in an electronic automated system as developed by the National Informatics Centre for this purpose and the aforesaid electronic automated system shall generate a unique number without which no arms licence shall be considered as valid with effect from the [1st April, 2016.]

55. [Appeal against the order of a licensing authority or an authority suspending or revoking a licence under section

(6) [Substituted by G.S.R.1470, dated 23.5.1963.].In any case in which an authority issues an order(a)refusing to grant or renew a licence or to give an objection certificate for such grant or renewal, or(b)varying any condition of a licence or suspending or revoking a licence under sub-section (1), or sub-section (3), or sub-section (6) of section 17, the person aggrieved by such order may, within thirty days from the date of issues of the order, and subject to the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 18, prefer an appeal against that order to the concerned appellate authority.

56. Procedure to be followed by the appellate authority

.On receipt of an appeal the appellate authority may call for the records of the case from the authority who passed the order appealed against and after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity of being heard pass final orders.

57. Fees payable for licence

(1)(a)[Every licence granted or renewed under these rules shall, save as herein otherwise expressly provided, be chargeable with the fee (if any) specified in Schedule IV.] Substituted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19.12.1997 (w.e.f. 3.1.1998).In any case where fee is prescribed for a year, fee for a fraction of a year shall be the same as for a whole year.(2)Where a licensee submits his application for renewal of his licence after the expiry of the period for which the licence was granted, the licensing authority may, if he decides to renew the licence, at his discretion levy(a)full fee as for initial grant of the licence, and(b)if he is satisfied that the delay is not justifiable, or excusable, nor serious enough to warrant revocation of the licence or prosecution of the licensee, a late fee not exceeding the amount of the licence fee is charged, or [Rs. 100] [Substituted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19.12.1997 (w.e.f. 3.1.1998.)] in other cases.(3)The Central Government may, by general or special order and for reasons to be recorded in writing and subject to such conditions, if any, as it may specify in the order, grant exemption from, or reduction of, the fee payable in respect of any licence: Provided that it shall be a condition of every exemption from payment of the fee chargeable in respect of the grant or renewal of any licence, in Form III that if application for renewal of such licence is not made within one month of the date on which the licence expires, the licensing authority may, unless the applicant satisfies the licensing authority that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period, levy renewal fee at the rate specified in the Form. (4) No separate fee shall be chargeable from retainers. (5) No fee shall be chargeable in respect of the grant or renewal of a licence in Form XV by a State Government or the Board of Revenue (in the State of Andhra Pradesh, Kerala or [Tamil Nadu] [Substituted by G.S.R. 783, dated 1.7.1974.] for the import of sulphur in reasonable quantities, if the State Government or the Board of Revenue is satisfied that the sulphur is required in good faith for medicinal, industrial or agricultural purposes (other than for manufacturing arms, ammunition or explosives). (6) Any political representative authorised to grant licences in Form XVIII may remit the fee payable in respect of the grant or renewal of any such licence in the case of arms or ammunition exported for personal use, or in the case of ammunition exported for use for blasting purpose (whether on a public work or not) of the Government of any territory or place outside India. (7) (i) No fee shall be chargeable for the grant of a licence for export and re-import of any arms or ammunition in a case of package legibly addressed to a person lawfully entitled to possess such articles, in compliance with a requisition made by a such person for the supply of such articles in reasonable quantities for his own use or after carrying out necessary repairs thereto. (ii) Where any arms or ammunition are imported under a licence into any customs port in India and re-exported thence for re-import into any other customs port in India under rule 35 the necessary licence for such re-export and re-import under the said rule shall be chargeable with a fee of rupees one hundred only. (8) No fee shall be chargeable in respect of (i) a change of description of the weapon entered in a licence granted for its acquisition under the proviso to rule 52(2) but if the licence fee in respect of the weapon so changed is higher than that for the original weapon, the difference of such fee may be charged; (ii) an endorsement under rule 12 of a licence granted in the State of Pondicherry or endorsement to extend or change the area of validity of a licence under sub-rule (1) of rule 53; (iii) a change of name, under rule 53(2), of member, agent or other representative of the company or retainer; or (iv) a grant of consent or permit certificate or endorsement or any other document under these rules, except as otherwise expressly provided.

58. Fee payable for copies and duplicates

.Where a licence granted or renewed under these rules is lost or accidentally destroyed, the authority empowered to grant such licence may grant a duplicate Substituted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19.12.1997 (w.e.f. 3.1.1998.) FORM OF RENEWAL OF THE LICENCE

	Date on which renewed licence expires	Signature and designation of renewing authority	Seal
Date and year of renewal

CONDITIONS

1. This licence is granted subject to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

2. It covers only the arms or ammunition specified in columns 2, 3 and 4 so long as they are kept in the place described in column 5, but does not authorise the licensee-

(i)to carry arms;(ii)to keep Government arms or ammunition.Explanation. - For the purposes of this condition-(a)"Government arms" means a firearm or other weapon which is the property of Government; and(b)"Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in any Government factory or prepared for and supplied to Government other than such ammunition as may be released by Government for civilian use.

3. Condition 2(ii) may be cancelled by the authority granting the licence if empowered to do so by the Central Government, and an endorsement added showing the Government arms or ammunition which the licensee is authorised to possess.

4. The licensee shall-

(a)on demand by an authorised officer produce the arms possessed under this licence;(b)not sell or transfer any arms or ammunition or any part thereof covered by this licence to any person not lawfully entitled to possess them;(c)forthwith give information at the nearest police station of the loss or theft of any arms or ammunition covered by this licence; and(d)give prior intimation to the licensing authority concerned of his intention to break up or dispose of any firearms or ammunition or any part thereof (otherwise than as mentioned in the note below); failing which, proof of the articles having been broken up or disposed of, will have to be furnished to the satisfaction of the licensing authority.

5. The authority granting or renewing the licence has the right to enquire at any time during the currency of the licence, whether the weapon for which it has been granted is still in the possession of the licensee, and may require the production of the weapon for the purpose of such an enquiry.

6. Where a licence in this Form is granted for the possession of potassium chlorate by an educational institution, the following further conditions shall apply:-

(a)The quantity of chlorate stored should be the minimum required for laboratory purposes as certified by the head of the institution to the licensing authority.(b)The stock of chlorate possessed should be kept in a well-made cupboard or almirah under lock and key under the control and supervision of a responsible member of the staff and the place where the chemicals are kept should be adequately secured.(c)Accounts of issues and balances of chlorate possessed should be kept and checked with the actual stock at frequent intervals by a responsible member of the staff. The account book should be available for inspection on demand by any Magistrate or any police officer of a rank not below that of Inspector.

7. Chlorates shall be kept in a building constructed of unflammable material only and separated from any dwelling-house, other building, highway, street, public thoroughfare or public place by a distance not less than 100 feet:

Provided that where the total quantity stored does not exceed 100 kg. chlorates may be kept exclusively in a closed and secured receptacle place in a building used for the keeping of other articles not being of an explosive or highly inflammable nature.

8. Sulphur shall not be kept in the same room with saltpetre in the premises specified in column 5:

Provided that where the quantity of each does not exceed 100 kg. sulphur and saltpetre can be kept in separate closed receptacles in the same room.

9. No person shall smoke and no open fires shall be allowed at any time in the premises specified in column 5, or in the vicinity of the receptacle mentioned in provisos to conditions 7 and 8.

10. Where any building used for storage of such materials is fitted with electric lighting or power, the licensee shall get these installations tested at least once a year or once during the currency of the licence by an Electrical

Inspector appointed under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 [for if these installations are in Sikkim by an authority notified in this behalf by the State Government of Sikkim], to ensure that there is no danger of the fire or sparking. [Inserted by G.S.R. 1462 (E), dated 21-7-1976.]

11. Any accident, fire or explosion occurring within the premises specified in column 5 which is attended with loss of human life or serious injury to person or property shall be reported at once by the licensee to the officer in charge of the nearest police station having jurisdiction over the premises as well as to the Inspector of Explosives of the circle concerned.

Note. - Licensees are warned that in case they sell or transfer any arms or ammunition covered by the licences possessed by them to any person, they shall forthwith inform in writing the District Magistrate having jurisdiction or the officer in charge of the nearest police station of such sale or transfer together with the particulars of the firearms and ammunition and the person to whom they have been sold or transferred (section 5 of the Arms Act, 1959). Failure to give such information is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine, which may extend to Rs. 500, or with both [section 25(3) of the Act]. FORM OF
THE LICENCE

Date and year of renewal	Date on which renewed	Name (in capitals)/Signature and designation of the renewing authority	Signature and designation of the officer specially empowered to sign the licence under rule 4	SEAL
-----------------------------	--------------------------	--	--	------

1. This licence is granted subjected to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

2. It covers only the person named, and the arms or ammunition described therein and such retainers (if any) as may be entered in column 6:

Provided that if the licensee is a recognised shikar agent in possession of a certificate to that effect from the Central Government he shall be able to lend his weapons covered by his licence for use by any foreign tourist accompanying him and in possession of a shooting licence under the local games rules, valid for the area where shooting by the latter is intended: Provided further that the licensee shall be able to lend his weapon temporarily for a period not exceeding a fortnight for the purpose of sport only to a person lawfully entitled to possess such type of weapon and subject to the conditions that-(a) the weapon is used by the borrower in the presence of the licence-holder or under his written authority, which shall show the number and other identification marks of the weapon and the period for which it is lent; (b) in the event of the weapon being misused by, or stolen or lost due to the gross negligence of, the borrower, the licence thereof shall be liable to be revoked; and (c) the borrower shall, on demand, produce proof of such lending.

3. If the licensee is a bona fide foreign tourist, the word "TOURIST" shall be stamped on his licence by the licensing authority.

4. This licence is valid to the extent specified in column 9 subject, in the case of a licence having effect in any area outside the State in which it is granted or renewed, to any restrictions which may be imposed in such area by any general or special order of the Central Government.

5. The licensee or any retainer acting under this licence shall not carry any arms covered thereby otherwise than in a good faith for the purpose of sport/protection/display and, save where he is specially authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate concerned, he shall not take any such arms to a fair, religious procession or other public assemblage (or within the campus or precincts of any educational institution).

6. The licensee, at the time of purchasing any arms or ammunition shall cause the following particulars to be endorsed upon his licence under the vendor's signature, namely-

(a)the name, description and residence of the person, who takes delivery of the articles purchased;(b)the nature and quantity of the articles purchased; and(c)the date of purchase,and if the arms or ammunition are purchased from any person other than a licensed dealer, shall also cause the particulars specified in clauses (b) and (c) to be furnished in writing to the authority who granted this licence within such period as may be prescribed for this purpose by such authority. No purchase of ammunition shall, however, be permitted except on a written certificate from the licensee certifying that with the amount proposed to be purchased, the total quantity of ammunition in his possession will not exceed the maximum which he is entitled to possess at any one time, or his total allowance for the year.

7. He shall not purchase ammunition of any kind in excess of the maximum which may from time to time be fixed by the Central Government. Such maximum may be prescribed both for the amount purchasable in a calendar year and for the amount that may be possessed at any one time. If, however, a licensee exhausts the total quantity of ammunition purchasable in a year earlier than the close of the year, he may for good and sufficient reason be given a temporary increase in the total quantity purchasable at the discretion of the licensing authority.

8. He shall not possess Government arms and ammunition.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this condition-(a)"Government arms" means a firearm or other weapon which is the property of the Government; and(b)"Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in any Government factory, or prepared for and supplied to Government other than such ammunition as may be released by Government for civilian use.

9. The licensee shall-

(a)on demand by an authorised officer produce the arms possessed under this licence;(b)not sell or transfer any arms or ammunition or any part thereof covered by this licence to any person not lawfully entitled to possess them;(c)forthwith give information at the nearest police station of the loss or theft of any arms or ammunition covered by this licence; and(d)give prior intimation to the licensing authority concerned of his intention to break up or dispose of any firearms or ammunition or any part thereof (otherwise than as mentioned in the note below); failing which, proof of the articles having been broken up or disposed of, will have to be furnished to the satisfaction of the licensing authority.

10. Condition 8 may be cancelled by the authority granting the licence if empowered to do so by the Central Government, and an endorsement added showing the Government arms or ammunition which the licensee is authorised to possess.

11. Where the licence is granted for the purpose of sport, the licensee or any retainer or any foreign tourist or other person referred to in the proviso to condition 2 or any other person using the weapon under the licence shall observe such close season as may be prescribed by the State Government concerned in respect of the game-birds and animals.

12. (a) The licensee may, at his option, apply to the nearest licensing authority having jurisdiction for the renewal of the licence as and when it becomes necessary.

(b) If a person who holds a licence in Form III changes his place of residence, permanently or temporarily, for more than thirty consecutive days and carries with him the weapon covered by the licence, to a place other than that indicated in column 2 of the licence, he shall, (within thirty days of such change), send intimation about such change to the licensing authority of the place of his new residence as well as to the authority which granted the licence or last renewed it, as the case may be, and shall, on demand forthwith produce the licence and the weapon to the first mentioned authority for making necessary entry in the licence to indicate therein the particulars of the new residence of the licensee.

13. Without prejudice to the voidance of this licence for breach of any of the foregoing conditions, it shall be void if-

(a) the licensee dies, or (b) any weapon covered thereby - (i) is sold, or transferred, or (ii) is attached in execution of a decree: Provided that where a weapon is sold or transferred, the licensing authority may permit the holder of the licence to acquire a fresh weapon of the same description within such period as may be specified by him in this behalf and subject to - (a) the production of the weapon so acquired or the licence or both before the aforesaid licensing authority for inspection as required under sub-rule (2) of rule 52, and (b) the payment of the prescribed licence fee in respect of the weapon so acquired.

14. The authority granting or renewing the licence has the right to enquire at any time during the currency of the licence, whether the weapon or weapons for which it has been granted is or are still in the possession of the licensee, and to require its or their production for the purpose of such enquiry.

Note 1. - Any breach of the conditions of this licence is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to Rs. 2,000, or with both [section 30 of the Act]. Note 2. - Licensees are warned that in case they sell or transfer any arms or ammunition covered by the licences possessed by them to any person, they shall forthwith inform in writing to the District Magistrate having jurisdiction or the officer in charge of the nearest police station of such sale or transfer, together with the particulars of the firearms and ammunition and the person to whom they have been sold or transferred (section 5 of the Arms Act, 1959). Failure to give such information is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to Rs. 500, or with both [section 25(3) of the Act].FORM III-A[] [Fee and entries relating thereto omitted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19-12-1997 (w.e.f. 3-1-1998).]LICENCE FOR POSSESSION AND CARRYING BY A RETAINER OF ARMS OR AMMUNITION FOR THE PURPOSE OF SPORT/PROTECTION/DISPLAY

FORM OF RENEWAL OF THE LICENCE

Date and year of renewal	Date on which renewal of licence expires	Name (in capital)/Signature and designation of renewing authority	Seal
1	2	3	4

1. This licence is granted subject to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

2. Once every year, between the 15th November and 31st December, the licensee shall produce this licence and every weapon covered thereby before the Magistrate referred to in column 8.

3. He shall not keep Government arms or ammunition.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this condition-(a)"Government arms" means a firearm or other weapon which is property of the Government; and(b)"Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in any Government factory, or prepared for and supplied to Government, other than such ammunition as may be released by Government for civilian use.

4. He shall not carry any arms covered by this licence otherwise than in good faith for the destruction of wild animals which do injury to human beings or cattle, nor shall he take any such arms to a fair, religious procession or other public assemblage or to any considerable distance beyond the place or area entered in column 5:

[Provided that save where he is specially authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate concerned, the licensee shall not carry arms covered by the licence within the campus or precincts of any educational institution.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 1259, dated 27-11-1980.]

5. Condition 3 may be cancelled by the authority granting the licence if empowered to do so by the Central Government and an endorsement added showing the Government arms or ammunition which the licensee is entitled to possess.

6. He shall not purchase or possess ammunition of any kind in excess of the maximum allowed under columns 3 and 4 of the licence or of the maximum which may from time to time be fixed by the Central Government for the amount purchasable in a year and for the amount that may be possessed at any one time.

7. At the time of purchasing any arms or ammunition, he shall cause the following particulars to be endorsed upon his licence under the vendor's signature, namely-

(a)the name, description and residence of the person who takes delivery of the articles purchased;(b)the nature and quantity of the articles purchased; and(c)the date of purchase,and if the arms or ammunition are purchased from any person other than a licensed dealer, he shall also cause the particulars specified in clauses (b) and (c) to be furnished in writing to the authority who granted this licence within such period as may be prescribed for this purpose by such authority. No purchase of ammunition shall, however, be permitted except on a written certificate from the licensee certifying that with the amount proposed to be purchased the total quantity of ammunition in his possession will not exceed the maximum which he is entitled to possess at any one time, or his total allowance for the year.

8. Without prejudice to the voidance of this licence for breach of any of the foregoing conditions, it shall be void, if-

Date and year of renewal	Date on which renewed licence expires	Signature and designation of renewing authority	Seal

1. (a) This licence is granted subject to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

(b) This licence does not entitle the dealer to take any arms or ammunition for testing to a testing range or other place without a permit for the purposes or to prove any firearms. (c) This licence is valid only so long as the licensee carries on the trade or business in the premises shown in column 3 thereof, and will ipso facto lapse if the business is discontinued for a continuous period exceeding six months. (d) [The licensee shall not enter into any partnership connected with this licence without the approval of the licensing authority]. [Added by G.S.R. 590, dated 8-5-1982.]

2. The licensee shall maintain registers of all arms manufactured or converted or shortened or repaired or tested or transferred, of all ammunition manufactured, converted, repaired or transferred, of all stock in hand and of all sales showing the particulars in such forms as may be prescribed for the purpose by the Central Government.

3. He shall make available for inspection his stock and his registers on the demand of any Magistrate or any police-officer of a rank not below that of Inspector or, if the Central Government so directs, of Sub-Inspector.

(1) He shall affix on a conspicuous part of his place of business, factory or shop a signboard, on which shall be painted in large letters in English/Hindi and in the languages of the district his name and the words "licensed to manufacture/convert/shorten/repair/test/transfer/sell arms or ammunition". (2) He shall also affix in his place of business, factory or shop a copy of section 36 of the Arms Act, 1959, either English/Hindi or in the language of the district.

5. He shall not manufacture firearms of any category or description other than those allowed to be manufactured under column 4, nor expand his business, except with the prior permission of the Central Government and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

6. He shall not sell to any one any firearm manufactured by him unless such firearm-

(a) is duly proof-tested at a Government establishment or an establishment approved in this behalf by the Central Government; (b) bears proof-marks; and (c) bears identification marks as required by rule 25.

7. He shall not sell any arms or ammunition elsewhere than at the place of business, factory or shop specified in column 3.

8. He shall not keep Government arms or ammunition except under the special or general orders of the Central Government.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this condition-(a)"Government arms" means a firearm or other weapon which is the property of the Government; and(b)"Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in a Government factory or prepared for and supplied to Government other than such ammunition as released by Government for civilian use.

9. He shall, at the time of sale or transfer of any arms or ammunition to a person holding a licence in Form III, Form IV, Form V, Form VII or VIII endorse on the licence,-

(a)the name, description and residence of the person who takes delivery of the articles sold or transferred,(b)the nature and quantity of the articles sold or transferred, and(c)the date of sale or transfer, and shall sign the endorsement (and affix his seal).

10. He shall at the time of sale or transfer of a weapon, enter in his register the number and other identification marks, if any, stamped on the weapon at the time of manufacture or otherwise.

11. He shall give information of all sales or transfer of arms and ammunition, to such person and in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

12. He shall not sell or transfer any quantity of ammunition to any person licensed to possess or carry arms or ammunition without his first obtaining a written certificate from such person to the effect that with the quantity of ammunition proposed to be purchased by him, the total quantity of ammunition in his possession will not exceed the maximum quantity which he is entitled to possess at any one time or his total allowance for the year:

Provided that he shall not, in any case, sell or transfer to any person any quantity of ammunition in excess of the maximum which may be fixed by the Central Government for such person or which is endorsed on such person's licence.

13. He shall not sell arms and ammunition to an officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier of the armed forces of the Union, unless such person produces a written pass or permit signed by his Commanding Officer, and then only to the extent and on the conditions specified in such pass or permit.

14. Where the licence is granted in and for any local area in West Bengal or Assam, the licensee shall not sell arms or ammunition without a special permit from a Magistrate, to any member of a hill-tribe to which the Central Government may, from time to time by notification, apply this condition.

[14-A. Where a licence is granted for conversion of ammunition, it shall not entitle the licensee to convert blank cartridges or any ammunition having no projectile into single/multiple projectile ammunition or to load or re-load any ammunition]. [Inserted by G.S.R. 703, dated 15-7-1980.]

15. The licensee shall not sell or transfer any arms of category V to a person residing in an area to which section 4 applies unless the said person produces a licence, or is exempted from the obligation to take out a licence, acquire, possess or carry such arms in that area.

16. The licensee shall forthwith give information at the nearest police station of the loss or theft of any arms or ammunition covered by the licence.

17. Chlorates shall be kept in a building constructed of unflammable materials only and separated from any dwelling-house, other building highway, street, public thoroughfare or public place by a distance of not less 10 feet:

Provided that, where the total quantity stored does not exceed 100 kg. may be kept exclusively in a closed and secured receptacle placed in a building used for the keeping of other articles not being of an explosive or highly inflammable nature.

18. Sulphur shall not be kept in the same room with saltpetre in the premises specified in column 3:

Provided that when the quantity of each does not exceed 100 kg., sulphur and saltpetre may be kept in separate closed receptacles in the same room.

19. No person shall smoke and no open fires shall be allowed at any time in the premises specified in column 3, or in the vicinity of the receptacles mentioned in provision to conditions 17 and 18.

20. Where any building used for storage of such material is fitted with electric lighting or power, the licensee shall get these installations tested at least once a year or once during the currency of the licence, by an Electrical Inspector appointed under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, to ensure that there is no danger of fire or sparking.

21. Any accident, fire or explosion occurring within the premises specified in column 3 which is attended with loss of human life or serious injury to persons or property shall be reported at once by the licensee to the officer in charge of the nearest police station having jurisdiction over the place of his business, factory or shop as well as to the Inspector of Explosives of the circle concerned.

22. [Subject to the other conditions contained herein, no licensee shall, without reasonable cause, refuse to sell arms or ammunition to any person who is entitled to purchase or acquire such arms or ammunition under the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 or the Arms Rules, 1962.

Explanation. - The possibility or expectation of the seller obtaining a higher price at a later date or the refusal by a person to purchase or acquire arms or ammunition partly of a description demanded by him and partly of a different description suggested by the licensee shall not be deemed to be a reasonable cause for the purpose of this condition.] [Substituted by G.S.R. 788, dated 16-5-1964.]

23. [The conversion into explosives of sulphur in admixtures with chlorates shall be permitted for the following purposes only (and for no other purposes):-

(i) in small quantities for scientific purposes; (ii) for the purposes of manufacturing heads of matches; or (iii) for use in toy amorces (paper caps for toy pistols).] FORM X[] [Fee and entries relating thereto omitted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19-12-1997 (w.e.f. 3-1-1998).] LICENCE FOR PROOF-TEST AND KEEPING FOR PROOF-TEST OF FIREARMS

11. He shall not sell arms or ammunition to an officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier of the armed forces of the Union unless such person produces a written pass or permit signed by the Commanding Officer, and then only to the extent and on the conditions specified in such pass or permit.

12. Where the licence is granted in and for any local area in West Bengal or Assam, the licensee shall not sell arms or ammunition, without a special permit from a Magistrate, to any member of a hill-tribe to which the Central Government may, from time to time by notification apply this condition.

13. The licensee shall not sell or transfer any arms of category V to a person residing in an area to which section 4 applies unless the said person produces a licence, or is exempted from the obligation to take out a licence to acquire, possess or carry such arms in that area.

14. The licensee shall forthwith give information at the nearest police station of the loss or theft of any arms or ammunition covered by the licence.

15. Chlorates shall be kept in building constructed of unflammable materials only and separated from any dwelling house, other building, highway, street, public thoroughfare or public place by a distance of not less than 10 feet:

Provided that, where the total quantity stored does not exceed 100 kg., chlorates may be kept exclusively in a closed and secured receptacle placed in a building used for the keeping of other articles not being of an explosive or highly inflammable nature.

16. Sulphur shall not be kept in the same room with saltpetre in the premises specified in column 3:

Provided that where the quantity of each does not exceed 100 kg., sulphur and saltpetre can be kept in separate closed receptacles in the same room.

17. No person shall smoke and no open fire shall be allowed at any time in the premises specified in column 3, or in the vicinity of the receptacles mentioned in provisos to conditions 15 and 16.

18. Where any building used for storage of such materials is fitted with electric lighting or power, the licensee shall get these installations tested at least once a year or once during the currency of the licence, by an Electrical Inspector appointed under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, to ensure that there is no danger of the sparking.

19. Any accident, fire or explosion occurring within the premises specified in column 3 which is attended with loss of human life or serious injury to persons or property shall be reported at once by the licensee to the officer in charge of the nearest police station having jurisdiction over this place of business, factory or shop as well as to the Inspector of Explosives of the circle concerned.

20. [Subject to the other conditions contained herein, no licensee shall, without reasonable cause, refuse to sell arms or ammunition to any person who is entitled to purchase or acquire such arms or ammunition under the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 or the Arms Rules, 1962.

Explanation. - The possibility or expectation of the seller obtaining a higher price at a later date or the refusal by a person to purchase or acquire arms or ammunition partly of a description demanded by him and partly of different description suggested by the licensee, shall not be deemed to be a reasonable cause for the purpose of this condition.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 788, dated 16-5-1964.]FORM XIV[] [Fee and entries relating thereto omitted by G.S.R. 1, dated 19-12-1997 (w.e.f. 3-1-1998).]LICENCE FOR THE POSSESSION BY HOLDERS OF LICENCES IN FORM IX, FORM XI, FORM XII OR FORM XIII OF ARMS OR AMMUNITION DEPOSITED BY THEIR OWNERS UNDER SECTION 21 OF THE ACT, OR FOR SAFE KEEPING

1. This licence is granted subject to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

2. It covers only the arms or ammunition of the description given in column 2 so long as they are kept in the place described in column 3, but does not authorise the licensee-

(i) to carry arms or, (ii) to keep Government arms or ammunition. Explanation. - For the purposes of this condition, - (a) "Government arms" means a firearm or other weapon which is the property of the Government; and (b) "Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in Government factory, or prepared for and supplied for civilian use.

3. (a) The licensee shall maintain separate registers of all arms or ammunition deposited with him under this licence,-

(i) under section 21(1), and (ii) for safe custody otherwise than under section 21(2), showing particulars in such Forms as may be prescribed by the Central Government for the purpose. (b) A copy of each of the registers certified by the dealer as a true copy relating to each preceding quarter of a calendar year, shall be forwarded within one week after the expiry of the quarter, to the District Magistrate, the quarters ending on the last day of March, June, September, December.

4. He shall not receive for deposit arms or ammunition without verifying-

(a) that they are not being deposited with any mala fide intention, and (b) in case they are being deposited otherwise than under section 21(1), that they are covered by a valid possession licence or are exempted from the need for such licence.

5. He shall not charge fees for keeping or maintaining the deposited articles in excess of the prescribed rates.

6. He shall not return to the depositor or sell the arms and ammunition deposited except in the manner and to the extent permitted for the sale of arms and ammunition to such depositor/purchaser.

7. On the expiry of the period prescribed for forfeiture of the arms or ammunition deposited, he shall deposit them in the malkhana of the district or such other place as may be specified by the State Government for the purpose.

8. He shall make available for inspection such arms or ammunition and his registers on the demand of any Magistrate or any police officer of a rank not below that of Inspector, or, if the Central Government so directs, of Sub-Inspector.

9. The licensee shall-

(a) either inform the nearest police station and the District Magistrate personally or despatch informing to the officer in charge of the police station and the District Magistrate concerned by registered post on the day of deposit or return or disposal, as the case may be; (b) forthwith inform the police station and the District Magistrate concerned of the loss or theft of any deposited article. Note. - A licence in this form will be granted for a period ending on the day on which the licensee's licence in Form IX, Form XI, Form XII or Form XIII, as the case may be, is due to expire.
