The Khuda Bakhsh Oriental Public Library Act, 1969 ACT NO. 43 OF 1969

1296.

The Khuda Baksha Oriental Public Library, Patna, was built out of the valuable personal collections of Arabic and Persian manuscripts and books of the late Maulvi Mohammad Baksh Khan. Later on, his son, the late Khuda Baksh, added to this collection. In 1891 Maulvi Khuda Baksha executed a deed of trust appointing the then Government of Bengal as trustees for the management of the Library. The Government of Bihar (as successor Government) are now the trustees. As at present Khuda Baksh Oriental Library, Patna, is being administered by a Board of Management set up by the Government of Bihar in consonance with the terms of the deed of trust and in consultation with the Central Government. The Government of Bihar have agreed to transfer the control of the library to the Central Government on the following conditions:-(i) that the Library or any of its possessions should not be removed outside the limits of the Patna Municipal Corporation;(ii) that the State Government is given an adequate representation in the Managing Body of the Library; and(iii) that the State Government's share of expenditures should not exceed Rs. 50,000 per annum. The present premises of the Library will be handed over by the Government of Bihar to the Central Government free of cost. Having regard to the importance and the value of the collections in the Library and to the need for reorganising and developing the Library on modern scientific lines, it is considered that it should be declared to be an institution of national importance under Entry 62 in List I of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution. The Bill seeks to give effect to the proposal and makes provision mainly for the following. -(1) the establishment of a Board consisting of 12 persons for the administration of the Library and the vesting in the Board of the property of the Library;(2) transfer of the existing staff to the Board;(3) the issue of directions of Government to the Board in the discharge of its functions, the submission by the Board of annual budget estimates and reports to Government, the deposit of funds in the Reserve Bank etc., and the annual audit of the accounts of the Board by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India." - Gazette of India, 21-2-1968, Pt.
