Chapter III

Port-Officials And Their Powers And Duties

7. Appointment of conservator.

(1)The [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] shall appoint some officer or body of persons to be conservator of every port subject to this Act.(2)Subject to any direction by the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] to the contrary,-(a)in ports where there is a port-officer, the port-officer shall be the conservator;(b)in ports where there is no port-officer, but where there is a harbour-master, the harbour-master shall be the conservator.(3)Where the harbour-master is not conservator, the harbourmaster and his assistants shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of, the conservator.(4)The conservator shall be subject to the control of the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".], or of any intermediate authority which [the Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "that Govt.".] may appoint.

8. Power of conservator to give and enforce directions for certain specified purposes.

(1)The conservator of any port subject to this Act may, with respect to any vessel within the port, give directions for carrying into effect any rule for the time being in force therein under section 6.(2)If any person wilfully and without lawful excuse refuses or neglects to obey any lawful direction of the conservator, after notice thereof has been given to him, he shall, for every such offence, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which, after such notice as aforesaid, he is proved to have wilfully and without lawful excuse continued to disobey the direction.(3)In case of such refusal or neglect, the conservator may do, or cause to be done, all acts necessary for the purpose of carrying the direction into execution, and may hire and employ proper persons for that purpose, and all reasonable expenses incurred in doing such acts shall be recoverable by him from the person so refusing or neglecting to obey the direction.

9. Power to cut warps and ropes.

The conservator of any such port may, in case of urgent necessity, cut, or cause to be cut, any warp, rope, cable or hawser endangering the safety of any vessel in the port or at or near to the entrance thereof.

10. Removal of obstructions within limits of port.

(1)The conservator may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber, raft or other thing, floating or being in any part of any such port, which in his opinion obstructs or impedes the free navigation thereof or the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing-place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring or other work on any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of the port and is not private property.(2)The owner of any such timber, raft or other thing shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of the removal thereof, and if such owner or any other person has without lawful excuse caused any such obstruction or impediment, or causes any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such free navigation or lawful use, he shall also be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.(3)The conservator or any Magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence may cause any such nuisance to be abated.

11. Recovery of expenses of removal.

If the owner of any such timber, raft or other thing, or the person who has caused any such obstruction, impediment or public nuisance as is mentioned in the last foregoing section, neglects to pay the reasonable expenses incurred in the removal thereof, within one week after demand, or within fourteen days after such removal has been notified in the Official Gazette or in such other manner as the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] by general or special order directs.the conservator may cause such timber, raft or other thing, or the materials of any public nuisance so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by public auction;and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of the sale, and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds, or deliver so much of the thing or materials as may remain unsold, to the person entitled to receive the same;and, if no such person appears, shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] directs;and may, if necessary, from time to time, realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of sale, by a further sale of so much of the thing or materials as may remain unsold.

12. Removal of lawful obstructions.

(1)If any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any port subject to this Act has been lawfully made, or has become lawful by reason of the long continuance of such obstruction or impediment, or otherwise, the conservator shall report the same for the information of the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".], and shall, with the sanction of [the Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "that Govt."], cause the same to be removed or altered, making reasonable compensation to the person suffering damage by such removal or alteration.(2)Any dispute arising concerning such compensation shall be determined according to the law relating to like disputes in the case of land required for public purposes.

13. Fouling of Government moorings.

(1)If any vessel hooks or gets foul of any of the buoys or moorings laid down by or by the authority of the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] in any such port, the master of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in case of emergency, lift the buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same without the assistance of the conservator;and the conservator, immediately on receiving notice of such accident, shall assist and superintend the clearing of such vessel;and the master of such vessel shall, upon demand, pay such reasonable expenses as may be incurred in clearing the same.(2)Any master or other person offending against the provisions of this section shall, for every such offence, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

14. Raising or removal or wreck impeding navigation within limits of port.

(1)If any vessel is wrecked, stranded or sunk in any such port so as to impede, or be likely to impede, the navigation thereof, the conservator may cause the vessel to be raised, removed or destroyed.(2)If any property recovered by a conservator acting under subsection (1) is unclaimed or the person claiming it fails to pay the reasonable expenses incurred by the conservator under that subsection and a further sum of twenty per cent. of the amount of such expenses, the conservator may sell the property by public auction, if the property is of a perishable nature, forthwith, and, if it is not of a perishable nature, at any time not less than [two months] [Substituted by Act 55 of 1952, Section 2, for "six months ".] after the recovery thereof.(3)The expenses and further sum aforesaid shall be payable to the conservator out of the sale-proceeds of the property, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or, if no such person appears and claims the balance, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person thereafter establishing his right thereto:Provided that the person makes his claim within three years from the date of the sale.(4)[Where the sale proceeds of the property are not sufficient to meet the expenses and further sum aforesaid, the owner of the vessel at the time the vessel was wrecked, stranded or sunk shall be liable to pay the deficiency to the conservator on demand, and if the deficiency be not paid within one month of such demand the conservator may recover the deficiency from such owner in the manner laid down in sub-section (2) of section 57 for recovery of expenses and damages or in any other manner according as the deficiency does not or does exceed one thousand rupees.] [Inserted by Act 55 of 1952, Section 2]

15. Power to board vessels and enter buildings.

(1)The conservator or any of his assistants may, whenever he suspects that any offence against this Act has been, or is about to be, committed, or whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, and the person appointed under this Act to receive any port-dues, fees or other charges payable in respect of any vessel, may, whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, either alone or with any other person, board any vessel, or enter any building or place, within the limits of any port subject to this Act. (2) If the master of the vessel, or any person in possession or occupation of the building or place, without lawful excuse, refuses to allow any such person as is mentioned in sub-section (1) to board or enter such vessel, building or place in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, he shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

16. Power to require crews to prevent or extinguish fire.

(1) For the purpose of preventing or extinguishing fire in any port subject to this Act, the conservator or port-officer may require the master of any vessel within the port to place at his disposal such number as he requires, not exceeding three-fourths, of the crew then under the orders of such master. (2) Any master refusing or neglecting to comply with such requisition shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and any seaman then under his orders who, after being directed by the master to obey the orders of the conservator or port-officer for the purpose aforesaid, refuses to obey such orders, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

17. Appointment and powers of health-officer.

(1) The [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".] may appoint at any port subject to this Act an officer to be called the health-officer. (2) A health-officer shall, subject to the control of the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".], have the following powers within the limits of the port for which he is appointed, namely:-(a) with respect to any vessel, the powers conferred on a shipping-master by the [Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1859] [See now the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (21 of 1923), Section 91.], section 71; (b) power to enter on board any vessel and medically examine all or any of the seamen or apprentices on board the vessel; (c) power to require and enforce the production of the logbook and any other books, papers or documents which he thinks necessary for the purpose of enquiring into the health and medical condition of the persons on board the vessel; (d) power to call before him and question for any such purpose all or any of those persons and to require true answers to any questions which he thinks fit to ask; (e) power to require any person so questioned to make and subscribe a declaration of the truth of the statements made by him.

18. Indemnity of Government against act or default of port official or pilot.

The Government shall not be responsible for any act or default of any conservator, port-officer or harbour-master, of any port subject to this Act, or of any deputy or assistant of any of the authorities aforesaid, or of any person acting under the control or direction of any such authority, deputy or assistant, or for any act or default of any pilot or for any damage sustained by any vessel in consequence of any defect in any of the moorings, hawsers or other things belonging to the Government which may be used by the vessel: Provided that nothing in this section shall protect [the Government] [The words "the Secretary of State for India in Council "successively Substituted by the A.O. 1937 and the A.O. 1950 to read as above.] from a suit in respect of any act done by or under the express order or sanction of the Government.

Chapter IV

Rules For The Safety Of Shipping And The Conservation Of Ports

General Rules

19. Injuring buoys, beacons and moorings.

(1) No person shall, without lawful excuse, lift, injure, loosen or set adrift any buoy, beacon or mooring fixed or laid down by, or by the authority of, the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government"] in any port subject to this Act. (2) If any person offends against the provisions of this section he shall for every such offence be liable, in addition to the payment of the amount of damage done, to fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years.

20. Wilfully loosening vessel from moorings.

If any person wilfully and without lawful excuse loosens or removes from her moorings any vessel within any such port without leave or authority from the owner or master of the vessel, he shall, for every such offence, be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months

21. Improperly discharging ballast.

(1) No ballast or rubbish and no other thing likely to form a bank or shoal or to be detrimental to navigation, shall, without lawful excuse, be cast or thrown into any such port or into or upon any place on shore from which the same is liable to be washed into any such port, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land-floods [and no oil or water mixed with oil shall be discharged in or into any such port, to which any rules made under clause (ee) of sub-section (1) of section 6 apply otherwise than in accordance with such rules] [Inserted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3.]. (2) Any person who by himself or another so casts or throws any ballast or rubbish or any such other thing [or so discharges any oil or water mixed with oil] [Inserted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3.], and the master of any vessel from which the same is so cast, [thrown or discharged] [Substituted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3., for "or thrown "], shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and shall pay any reasonable expenses which may be incurred in removing the same.(3)If, after receiving notice from the conservator of the port to desist from so casting or throwing any ballast or rubbish or such other thing [or from so discharging any oil or water mixed with oil] [Inserted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3.], any master continues so to cast [throw or discharge the same] [Substituted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3., for "or throw it "], he shall also be liable to simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months.(4)Nothing in this section applies to any case in which the ballast or rubbish or such other thing is cast or thrown into, [or the oil or water mixed with oil is discharged in or into] [Inserted by Act 39 of 1923, Section 3.], any such port with the consent in writing of the conservator, or within any limits within which such act may be authorized by the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government"].

22. Graving vessel within prohibited limits.

If any person graves, breams or smokes any vessel in any such port, contrary to the directions of the conservator, or at any time or within any limits at or within which such act is prohibited by the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".], he and the master of the vessel shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees each.

23. Boiling pitch on board vessel within prohibited limits.

If any person boils or heats any pitch, tar, resin, dammer, turpentine, oil or other such combustible matter on board any vessel within any such port, or at any place within its limits where such act is prohibited by the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government"], or contrary to the directions of the conservator, he and the master of the vessel shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees each.

24. Drawing spirits by unprotected artificial light.

If any person, by an unprotected artificial light, draws off spirits on board any vessel within any port subject to this Act, he and the master of the vessel shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees each.

25. Warping.

(1)Every master of a vessel in any port subject to this Act shall, when required so to do by the conservator, permit warps or hawsers to be made fast to the vessel for the purpose of warping any other vessel in the port, and shall not allow any such warp or hawser to be let go until required so to do.(2)A master offending against sub-section (1) shall be punishable for every such offence with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

26. Leaving out warp or hawser after sunset.

(1)A master of a vessel shall not cause or suffer any warp or hawser attached to his vessel to be left out in any port subject to this Act after sunset in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any other vessel navigating in the port.(2)A master offending against sub-section (1) shall be punishable for every such offence with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

27. Discharge of fire arms in port.

If any person, without lawful excuse, discharges any fire-arm in any port subject to this Act, or on or from any pier, landing-place, wharf or quay thereof, except a gun loaded only with gun powder for the purpose of making a signal of distress, or for such other purpose as may be allowed by the [Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1937 for "Local Government".], he shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

28. Penalty on master omitting to take order to extinguish fire.

If the master of any vessel in which fire takes place while lying in any such port wilfully omits to take order to extinguish the fire or obstructs the conservator or the port-officer, or any person acting under the authority of the conservator or port-officer, in extinguishing or attempting to extinguish the fire, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

29. Unauthorized person not to search for lost stores.
