The United Kingdom-India Trade Agreement Rules, 1939Published Vide Notification Gazette of India, 1939 Part 1, part 1034 Rules have been reproduced as modified up-to date.No. 20-T (21)/39, dated the 17th June, 1939. - In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Indian Tariff Act, 1934 (32 of 1934) and in supersession of the notification of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce No. 780-T, dated the 24th December, 1932 the Central Government is pleased to make the following Rules:-Rules

1. Short title.

- These Rules may be called the United Kingdom-India Trade Agreement Rules, 1939.

2. Application.

- These Rules apply to goods consigned from the following countries namely:- (a) The United kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and (b) The Colonies, British Protectorates, and territories under the British Mandate specified in the First Schedule.

3. Definition.

- In these Rules - (a) "Act" means the Indian Tariff Act, 1934 (32 of 1934) (b) "British Colony" means any country specified in the First Schedule; (c) "expenditure on material" means the cost of the manufacturer of the material at the factory or works, including containers but excluding royalties; (d) "factory or works cost" means the cost of production to the manufacturer at the factory or works and shall include the value of containers and other forms of interior packing ordinarily sold with the articles when it is sold retail but shall not include the manufacturer's or exporter's profit or the cost of exterior packing, carriage to port and other charges incidental to the export of the article subsequent to its manufacture; and(e)"United Kindgom" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

No article shall be deemed to be the produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom or a British Colony unless the Customs Collectors is satisfied -(1)Subject to the provisions of rule 5 that the article has been consigned from such country; and(2)(a)where the article is unmanufactured, that it has been grown or produced in such country, and(b)where the article is manufactured -(i)that it has been wholly manufactured in such country from material produced in such country; or(ii)that it has been wholly manufactured in such country from unmanufactured materials; or(iii)that it has been partially manufactured in such country and that the final process of manufacture has been performed in such country, and that the expenditure on material produced and labour performed in such country in the manufacture of the article is not less in the case of an article specified in the Second Schedule than one-half and in the case of other articles than one-quarter of the factory or works of the article in its finished state:Provided that where the goods are consigned from a British Colony the material produced and labour performed in any other British colony may be reckoned as though it were material produced or labour performed in the colony from which the goods were consigned.Explanation. - For the purposes of sub-clause (iii) of clause 2 (b) the final process of manufacture shall not be deemed to have been performed in any country in which no process other than a process of mixing, bottling, labelling, packing into retail containers or the like has been performed, but where such process as aforesaid has been performed in the country in die country in which the final process of manufacture has also been performed nothing herein shall render the cost of such process ineligible for inclusion in the computation of the fraction of the factory or works cost of the article in its finished state which represents expenditure on material produced and labour performed in that country.

Article of a description specified in the first column of the Third Schedule which have been consigned from the United Kingdom but are in other respect eligible under rule 4 to be deemed to be the produced or manufacture or a country specified in the corresponding entry in the second column thereof shall be deemed to be the produce or manufacture of that country notwithstanding that fact that they were not consigned therefrom.

6. Customs House procedure for goods entered for home consumption.

- If the owner of any goods entered for home consumption claims that they are chargeable with a preferential rate of duty, but is unable at the time of entry to satisfy the Customs Collector, that the goods fulfil the conditions, laid down in rule 4 or rule 4 read with rule 5, as the case may be, the Customs Collector -(i)shall levy and collect the duty at the standard rate, and if at any time within a period of six months from the date of payment of duty at the standard rate the receives an application in this behalf from the owner of the goods and is duly satisfied that the goods are entitled to entry at the preferential rate, shall make a refund to the owner of the extra duty levied; or(ii)may, in his discretion, levy and collect the duty provisionally at the preferential rate, subject to the execution by the owner of the goods of a bond in one of the Forms prescribed in the Fourth Schedule binding himself to pay the balance of the duty.

(1)No claim that goods are chargeable with a preferential rate of duty shall be considered by the Customs Collector in respect of goods imported by post unless-(a)at the time of arrival in British India such goods are covered by a declaration as to the country of origin entered in the customs declaration form or (in the absence of such a form) on the wrapper of the package,or(b)such claim is made by the owner at any time before delivery of the goods is taken.(2)If the owner of the goods is unable to satisfy the Customs Collector that the goods fulfil the conditions laid down in rule 4 or rule 4 read with rule 5, the Customs Collector shall proceed in the manner prescribed in rule 6.

8. Customs House Procedure or goods entered for warehousing.

(1)If the owner of any goods entered for warehousing claims that they are chargeable with a preferential rate of duty, but is unable at the time of entry to satisfy the Customs Collector that the goods fulfil the conditions laid down in rule 4 or rule 4 read with rule 5, as the case may be, the Customs Collector shall assess duty at the standard rate.(2). If the Customs Collector is satisfied before the goods are removed from the warehouse that they are chargeable with a preferential rate of duty, he shall re-assess them accordingly at the time of such removal(3)If the goods are removed from the warehouse without the Customs Collector being so satisfied, they may be dealt with in the manner prescribed in rule 6.
