9. Power to ascertain net profits or market-value

If the Court sees reason to think that the annual net profits or the market-value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

10. Procedure where net profits or market-value wrongly estimated

(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply.

14. Refund of fee on application for review of judgment

Where an [application] [As to application for review of judgment, see the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908(5 of 1908), Section 114 and Order 47 of the First Schedule.] for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicants laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorising him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented [before] [See Sch.I, Nos 4 and 5, infra.] such day.

15. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake

Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the [application] [Substituted by Act 20 of 1870, Section 1, for " plaint or memorandum of appeal" .] as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act, No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d). 19A. Relief where too high a Court-fee has been paid

Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a Court-fee thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority [for the local area] [Substituted by Act 10 of 1901, Section 3, for " of the Province" .] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted, and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required, the said Authority may(a)cancel the stamp on the probate or letters if such stamp has not been already cancelled;(b)substitute another stamp for denoting the Court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and(c)make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

19B. Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate

Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less Court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act,such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

19C. Relief in case of several grants

Whenever [* * *] [The word "such" repealed by Act 12 of 1891, Section 2 and Sch.I.] a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

19D. Probates declared valid as to trust-property though not covered by Court-fee

The probate of the will or the letters of administration of the effects of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any movable or immovable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a Court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

19E. Provision for case where too low a Court-fee has been paid on probates, etc

Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a Court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority [for the local area] [Substituted by Act 10 of 1901, Section 3, for " of the Province" .]in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full Court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper Court-fee, without any deduction of the Court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters: Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a Court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper Court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

19F. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped under section 19-E

In case of letters of administration on which too low a Court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

19G. Executors, etc., not paying full Court-fee on probates, etc., within six months after discovery of under-payment

Where too low a Court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months [* * *] [The words and figures [after the first day of April, 1875, or" repealed by Act 12 of 1891, Section 2 and Sch.I.] after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the Court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten per cent. on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper Court-fee.[19-H. When such amount or value exceeds five rupees, for every five rupees, or part thereof, in excess of five rupees, up to one hundred rupees.	Six annas.
When such amount or value exceeds one hundred rupees, for every ten rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one hundred rupees, up to one thousand rupees.	Twelve annas
When such amount or value exceeds one thousand rupees, for every one hundred rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one thousand rupees, up to five thousand rupees.	Five rupees.
When such amount or value exceeds five thousand rupees, for every two hundred and fifty rupees, or part thereof, in excess of five thousand rupees, up to ten thousand rupees.	Ten rupees.
When such amount or value exceeds ten thousand rupees, for every five hundred rupees, or part thereof, in excess of ten thousand rupees, up to twenty thousand rupees.	Fifteen rupees.
When such amount or value exceeds twenty thousand rupees, for every one thousand rupees, or part thereof, in excess of twenty thousand rupees, up to thirty thousand rupees.	Twenty rupees.

When such amount or value exceeds thirty thousand rupees, for every two thousand rupees, or part thereof, in excess of thirty thousand rupees, up to fifty thousand rupees. Twenty rupees

When such amount or value exceeds fifty thousand rupees, for every five thousand rupees, or part thereof, in excess of fifty thousand rupees : Twenty-five rupees.

Provided that the maximum fee leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be three thousand rupees.

COMMENTS In view of the special provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 and R. 22 framed thereunder which lay down that no Court-fee at all is payable on a third party claim under Section 110-A of the Act, held, no ad valorem Court-fee is required to be paid by a claimant on his appeal or cross-objections: Triloki Nath Bhargava v. Jaswant Kaur, A.I.R. 1975 P.&H. 303 (D.B.). Under Sch. I, Art. 1 ad valorem Court-fee is payable on the plea of set-off, and not on the plea of adjustment, the plea of adjustment is in the nature of an intimation to the Court that prior to the suit's institution the amount or a part of it had been adjusted and the plaintiff was not entitled to claim it: Gupta Pvt. Loan Committee v. Moti Ram A.I.R. 1984 J.&K. 38. A memorandum of appeal is to be stamped according to the value of its subject-matter; in other words, it is the relief claimed in the appeal which determines the value of the appeal for the purpose of Court-fee: Taramoni Dasi v. Kalidasi Majhi A.I.R. 1977 Cal. 43. An agreement to sell or mortgage a property of the value of more than Rs. 100 creates no title in the property; it only remains an agreement till it is enforced. Therefore, a suit for a declaration that such an agreement was never entered into between the parties or was otherwise null and void would not fall within the ambit of Article 1, Schedule I: Raj Singh v. Deepak Kumar A.I.R. 1988 P.&H. 83. An award of an Arbitrator under the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952 is undoubtedly a formal expression of a decision made by a competent authority which is binding on the parties and relates to compensation payable under an Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for the public purposes. Thus, even though the expression "order" simpliciter is to be understood in the sense in which it is defined in Section 2(14) of the Code, the word "order" found in Section 51 of the Tamil Nadu Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1955 (corresponding to Section 8 of Central Act) has to be read differently having regard to the use of qualifying words used therein, namely, "relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of properties". Such an order need not be of a Civil Court only; it can be of any statutory authority. An award under Section 8 of the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act satisfies these tests. Ad valorem Court-fee has to be paid under Art. 1, Sch. I and not a fixed Court-fee under Art. 11, Sch. II: C.G. Ghanshamdas v. Collector of Madras A.I.R. 1987 S.C. 180.

the Regulation of the Bombay Code No. 8 of 1827, in respect of any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid in respect of the Former grant.

COMMENTS Where the valuation of the property for obtaining a probate or letters of administration made by the petitioner and the Collector, respectively, differed, held, the petitioner had to pay ad valorem Court-fee on the valuation as soon as the same is decided by the Court; the relevant date for ascertaining the market-value of the property in such a case is the date of the institution of the application for probate: Lakshmi Prasad v. Badri Ram A.I.R. 1985 Pat. 119 (D.B.). In computing the Court-fee payable on a subsequent application for grant of letters of administration, the petitioner is entitled to adjust the Court-fee already paid by him in the earlier application : Lakshmi Prasad v. Badri Ram A.I.R. 1985 Pat. 119 (D.B.).

COMMENTSThe employees in industrial dispute of a collective nature are usually represented by their Unions before the Labour or Industrial Courts; they can also join, if they so desire, as individuals. When they come up before the High Court in a writ to impugn an order of such Courts, they claim the same relief and have the same cause of action. Thus, a single Court-fee alone would suffice; each of them is not expected to file a separate petition for the identical relief: Heavy Electricals Employees Union v. State Industrial Court A.I.R. 1976 Madh. Pra. 66.

COMMENTS Where a plaintiff in a suit for partition and rendition of accounts was found to be in possession of a part of the property, held, it is to be valued for the purposes of Court-fee in accordance with Section 7(4)(b) read with Art. 17, Sch. II; no ad valorem Court-fee is required to be paid: S. Fauna Singh v. Kuldip Singh A.I.R. 1978 Del. 276. A suit under O. 21, R. 103 of the pre-1976 amended Code of Civil Procedure is a statutory suit enabling the Court to set aside summary orders passed in execution; obviously it falls under Art. 17(i), Sch. II; even a prayer for possession would be unnecessary and superfluous and of no effect; no ad valorem Court-fee need be paid therefor: Mathura Prasad Missir v. Sukhdeo Rai A.I.R. 1976 Pat. 184. The members of a Mohammadan family might live in commensality; yet they do not form a joint family as understood in Hindu Law. Thus, a Mohammadan suing for partition of a property standing in the name of another member of his family said to have been purchased with the family funds, held, has to pay ad valorem Court-fee on the value of his share claimed; and not the fixed Court-fee under Art. 17(vi), Seh. II: Mohammad Raza Khan v. Sahab Raza Khan A.I.R. 1976 Pat. 108.
