The Bhopal Gas Leak Disaster (Processing Of Claims) Act, 1985 ACT NO. 21 OF 1985

1229.

The gas leak disaster involving the release, on 2nd and 3rd December, 1984, of highly noxious and abnormally dangerous gas from a plant in Bhopal of the Union Carbide (India) Limited, a subsidiary of the Union Carbide Corporation, U.S.A., is of an unprecedented nature both from the point of view of its nature and its effects. It results in loss of life and damage to property on an extensive scale. Victims of the disaster who have managed to survive are still suffering from adverse effects and the further complications which may arise effects and the further complications which may arise in their case in course of time cannot be fully visualised event at this stage. The Central Government and the Government of Madhya Pradesh and various agencies had to incur expenditure on a large scale for containing the disaster and mitigating or otherwise coping with the effects of the disaster.² Government has been anxious to ensure that the interests of the victims of the disaster are fully protected and that the claims for compensation or damages for loss of life or personal injuries or in respect of other matters arising out of or connected with the disaster are processed speedily, effectively, equitably and to the best advantage of the claimants. The legal position was examined with reference to the laws obtaining in the United States of America and in our country and in the light of the examination it was felt that special provisions of the examination it was felt that special provisions should be made for processing the claims. Accordingly the President promulgated on the 20th day of February, 1985, the Bhopal Gas Leak Disaster (Processing of Claims) Ordinance, 1985, to confer powers on the Central Government to represent the claimants and take all necessary steps for the processing of the claims. The Ordinance also provided for the appointment of a Commissioner for the welfare of the victims of the disaster and for the formulation of a Scheme to provide for various matters necessary for processing of the claims and for the utilisation by way of disbursement or otherwise of amounts received in satisfaction of the claims.³ The Bill seeks to replace the aforeside Ordinance.- Gazette of India, 15-3-1985, Pt. II, Section 2, Ext., p. 6 (No. 8).^{[29th}

March, 1985]An Act to confer certain powers on the Central Government to secure that claims arising out of, or connected with, the Bhopal gas leak disaster are dealt with speedily, effectively, equitably and to the best advantage of the claimants and for matters incidental thereto. BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short title and commencement.

(1)This Act may be called the Bhopal Gas Leak Disaster (Processing of Claims) Act, 1985.(2)It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 20th day of February, 1985.

2. Definitions.

- In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,-(a)"Bhopal gas leak disaster" or "disaster" means the occurrence on the 2nd and 3rd days of December, 1984, which involved the release of highly noxious and abnormally dangerous gas from a plant in Bhopal (being a plant of the Union Carbide India Limited, a subsidiary of the Union Carbide Corporation, U.S.A.) and which resulted in loss of life and damage to property on an extensive scale;(b)"claim" means--(i)a claim, arising out of, or connected with, the disaster, for compensation or damages for any loss of life or personal injury which has been, or is likely to be, suffered;(ii)a claim, arising out of, or connected with, the disaster, for any damage to property which has been, or is likely to be, sustained;(iii)a claim for expenses incurred or required to be incurred for containing the disaster or mitigating or otherwise coping with the effects of the disaster; 90 (iv) any other claim (including any claim by way of loss of business or employment) arising out of, or connected with, the disaster;(c)"claimant" means a person entitled to make a claim;(d)"Commissioner" means the Commissioner appointed under section 6;(e)"person" includes the Government;(f)"Scheme" means a Scheme framed under section 9.Explanation. - For the purposes of clauses (b) and (c), where the death of a person has taken place as a result of the disaster, the claim for compensation or damages for the death of such person shall be for the benefit of the spouse, children (including a child in the womb) and other heirs of the deceased and they shall be deemed to be the claimants in respect thereof.

3. Power of Central Government to represent claimants.

(1)Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Central Government shall, and shall have the exclusive right to, represent, and act in place of (whether within or outside India) every person who has made, or is entitled to make, a claim for all purposes connected with such claim in the same manner and to the same effect as such person.(2)In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the purposes referred to therein include--(a)institution of any suit or other proceeding in or before any court or other authority (whether within or outside India) or withdrawal of any such suit or other proceeding, and(b)entering into a compromise.(3)The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply also in relation to claims in respect of which suits or other proceedings have been instituted in or before any court or other authority (whether within or outside India) before the commencement of this Act:Provided that in the case of any such suit or other proceeding with respect to any claim pending immediately before the commencement of this Act in or before any court or other authority outside India, the Central Government shall represent, and act in place of, or along with, such claimant, if such court or other authority so permits.

4. Claimant's right to be represented by a legal practitioner, Power of Central Government.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, in representing, and acting in place of, any person in relation to any claim, the Central Government shall have due regard to any matters which such person may require to be urged with respect to his claim and shall, if such person so desires, permit at the expense of such person, a legal practitioner of his choice to be associated in the conduct of any suit or other proceeding relating to his claim.

5. Power of Central Government.

(1) For the purpose of discharging its functions under this Act, the Central Government shall have the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908.) in respect of the following matters, namely:--(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person from any part of India and examining him on oath; (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document; (c) receiving evidence on affidavits; (d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office; (e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents; (f) any other matter which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify. (2) Every notification made under clause (f) of sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the notification or both Houses agree that the notification should not be made, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification.

6. Commissioner and other officers and employees.

(1) For the purpose of assisting it in discharging its functions under this Act, the Central Government may appoint an officer, to be known as the Commissioner for the welfare of the victims of the Bhopal gas leak disaster, and such other officers and employees to assist him as that Government may deem fit. (2) The Commissioner shall discharge such functions as may be assigned to him by the Scheme. (3) The Commissioner and such of the officers subordinate to him as may be authorised by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette in this behalf may, for the discharge of their functions under the Scheme, exercise all or any of the powers which the Central Government may exercise under section 5. (4) All officers and authorities of the Government shall act in aid of the Commissioner. (5) [The Commissioner and the officers subordinate to him authorised to discharge functions under the scheme shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of section 195 and

Chapter XXVI of the code of criminal procedure, 1973.] [Inserted by Act 24 of 1992, Section 2]

7. Power to delegate.

- The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, delegate, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the notification, all or any of its powers under this Act (excepting the power under section 9 to frame a Scheme) to the Government of Madhya Pradesh or an officer of the Central Government not below the rank of a Joint Secretary to that Government or an officer of the Government of Madhya Pradesh not below the rank of a Secretary to that Government.
