The Hindu Gains of Learning Act, 1930(Act No. 30 of 1930)Last Updated 26th July, 2019[Dated 25th July, 1930]An Act to remove doubt as to the rights of a member of a Hindu undivided family in property acquired by him by means of his learningWhereas it is expedient to remove doubt, and to provide a uniform rule, as to the rights of a member of a Hindu undivided family in property acquired by him by means of his learning.It is hereby enacted as follows :-

1. Short title and extent.

(1)This Act may be called the Hindu Gains of Learning Act, 1930.(2)It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Definitions.

- In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-(a)"acquired" means a member of a Hindu undivided family, who acquires gains of learning;(b)"gains of learning" means all acquisitions of property made substantially by means of learning, whether such acquisitions be made before or after the commencement of this Act and whether such acquisitions be the ordinary or the extra-ordinary result of such learning; and(c)"teaming" means education, whether elementary, technical, scientific, special or general, and training of every kind which usually intended to enable a person to pursue any trade, industry, profession or avocation in life.

3. Gains of learning not to be held not be separate property of acquirer merely for certain reasons.

- Notwithstanding, any custom, rule or interpretation of the Hindu law, no gains of learning shall be held not to be the exclusive and separate property of the acquirer merely by reason of-(a)his learning having been, in whole or in part, imparted to him by any member, living or deceased, of his family, or with the aid of the joint funds of his family, or with aid of the funds of any member thereof, or (b) himself or his family having, while he was acquiring his learning, been maintained or supported, wholly or in part, by the joint funds of his family, or by the funds of any member thereof.

4. Savings.

- This Act shall not be deemed in any way to affect-(a) the terms or incidents of any transfer of property made or effected before the commencement of this Act, (b) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequences of anything already suffered or done before the commencement of this Act, (c) any right or liability created under a partition, or an agreement for a partition, of joint family property made before the commencement of this Act, or (d) any remedy or proceeding in respect of such right or liability; or to render invalid or in any way affect anything done before the commencement of this Act in any proceeding pending in a Court at such commencement; and any such remedy and any such proceeding as is herein referred to may be enforced, instituted or continued, as the case may be, as if this Act had not been passed.
